Reds Accused of Slipping Arms to Students, Miners

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Bolivia broke relations with Communist Czechoslovakia Thursday night, accusing it of inciting rebellion after new skirmishes in the capital killed at least three persons and wounded 23.

The government accused the Czechoslovak Embassy of slipping arms to student and tin miner rebels who have staged uprisings in wide areas of Bolivia.

Quiet was restored in La Paz today and government troops were in firm control of Oruro, a city proclaimed the capital of rebellion by miners and students opposed to President Paz Estenssoro. Oruro is 143 miles south of La Paz.

Fighting Troops
But students and miners last were reported fighting troops 18 miles from Oruro.

Rebel miners still were in control of most of the tin mines in that area. Rebel outbreaks also were reported at Cochabamba, 310 miles southwest of La Paz.

Paz in a radio speech Thursday night blamed Communists for the uprising in the tin mining centers and declared he would resist demands of his foes that he resign.

Possibly 50 persons have been killed in the various clashes throughout the country in the past few days.

The fighting in La Paz raged for three hours Thursday night between rebel university students and government forces.

President's Word Of Disapproval Appears as Cause

NEW YORK (AP) — Talk of a steel price rise died down today, apparently spooked by disappearing word from President Johnson.

Given them enduring pause? The Johnson point that steel profits, anemic two years ago, now are swelling rapidly was underscored Thursday when Bethlehem Steel Corp., the No. 2 producer, reported that July-September earnings had jumped 105 per cent from a year earlier, rising to $36.3 million or 76 cents a common share.

Profits Climbing
For the first nine months of this year profits climbed 58 per cent to $104,928,160, a seven-year high for such a period and more than the company earned in all of 1963.

Even so, Edmund F. Martin, Bethlehem chairman, said the nine-month margin—a 6.3 per cent return on sales and 7.8 per cent on invested capital—wasn't good enough.

This was roughly what several other steel company executives have been saying.

Foreign Policy Blamed

Goldwater Charges U. S. Prestige Sinking

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — said Goldwater, is "regrouping under tough new leaders."

Turning his campaign westward, Goldwater said Johnson "has proven to be a President isolated from foreign policy behind a wall of political ambition and behind a wall of political henchmen who care for nothing in the world but their own gains and power."

Goldwater made his accusations at Cheyenne, Wyo., kicking off a campaign day that takes him to Tucson, Ariz., Las Vegas, Nev., and Los Angeles.

France, Russia Sign Commercial Pact

PARIS (AP) — France and the Soviet Union today signed a new five-year commercial accord. It provides for a controversial seven-year credit for the sale of $350 million worth of capital goods to the Soviet Union.

France became the second country to break the West's gentlemen's agreement against extending more than five years credit to a Communist country.

Plans Naming Vien Deputy And Minister of Defense

SAIGON, South Viet Nam Red Cross. In 1960, he signed a petition by a group of politicians to succeed Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh as premier despite ill health which hampered his work as mayor.

Huong, 60, said he planned to name Dr. Nguyen Luu Vien, Khanh's uncle, as deputy premier and defense minister. His other Cabinet choices were not certain.

Huong's appointment by the new chief of state, Phan Khanh Suu, must be confirmed by the 16-member high national council responsible for setting up a new government.

Strong Opposition
Because of Khanh's relationship to Vien, there could be strong opposition to Vien's being named defense minister. In that post he will have a seat on the powerful four-man national security council, and Khanh is expected to fill one of the other seats as chief of the armed forces.

Vien was interior minister in Khanh's last Cabinet. "I'm not sure whether I should be congratulated or offered condolences," Huong said. "But this is a critical period in Vietnamese history, and I have accepted this sacrifice for my nation as a matter of conscience."

High School Teacher
A high school teacher, Huong was mayor of Saigon in 1954-55 under the late President Ngo Dinh Diem. He attracted attention by riding to work on a bicycle instead of using a government limousine.

In 1956, Huong became secretary-general of the Vietnamese

Halloween is spooky fun. A few years ago it was pranks, some not so childish. A few hundred years ago, particularly in England, Ireland and Scotland, Halloween was dead serious — with emphasis on the dead. German Gates Open Second Time in 3 Years

6,000 West Berliners Pass Through Wall Within Hours

BERLIN (AP) — Thousands of happy West Berliners streamed into the Soviet sector today to visit relatives after the Communists opened the Berlin wall for the second time in three years.

A few hours after Red guards raised the candy-striped steel barriers and unlocked the steel

gates, the official East German news agency reported that 6,000 West Berliners had crossed over.

This was far more than expected. On the first day of last year's visiting period, the most the Reds had allowed since they built their wall in August 1961, only about 4,000 crossed all day.

The wall will remain open to persons with the necessary passes until Nov. 12 — over the All Saints' holiday. It is the first of four visiting periods within the next 12 months.

Krebiozen Users Plea To Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of Krebiozen drug users who "do not believe our government will abandon us and let us die" sent a personal plea today to President Johnson.

The 17 keeping a vigil in the outer office of Anthony J. Celebrezze, secretary of health, education and welfare, want the President to lift the federal ban on interstate shipment of the controversial drug which the government has ruled is worthless against cancer.

Before dawn broke over the capital, members of the Citizens Committee for Cancer Survivors on Krebiozen drew up a telegram to Johnson.

It said: "We appeal to you to lift the ban for those patients now using Krebiozen by executive authority exercisable in disaster affecting American lives."

"Your intervention would be received by our people and the world as a magnificent act of humanitarianism."

Through the long night, some of the sicker patients in the group slept on mattresses just outside Celebrezze's office.

Mrs. Kennedy A Victim of Bomb Threat

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal and city officers Thursday night made a roof-to-ceiling search of the apartment and the building where Mrs. John F. Kennedy and her two children live, after an anonymous telephone caller said a bomb had been planted in the Kennedy apartment.

Nothing suspicious was found by the FBI and Secret Service agents and city police and firemen.

Thieves Take $200,000 in Famed Gems

NEW YORK (AP) — Gems worth approximately $200,000 including the world's largest star sapphire, the "Star of India," were stolen during the night from Manhattan's famed Museum of Natural History, police reported today.

Another extremely valuable item among the eight taken was what is called the "Star Ruby."

The previous stones were part of the J.P. Morgan collection displayed on the museum's fourth floor.

Police said the theft occurred sometime between 9 o'clock Thursday night and 9 a.m. today.

The burglars apparently broke into the museum through a rear window, officers said. Three showcases containing the gems were smashed.

World Communist Meeting Probability in Near Future

Red China May Attend, but It's Unlikely Split Will be Healed

A world Communist meeting mand for muffling communism — with Red China attending — is a possibility in the near future. Khrushchev's successors — But any attempt to heal the split party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev in the global revolutionary and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin movement seems headed for — seem anxious to muddle the failure.

The new Soviet regime in all and its allies. But if they are likelihood will be unwilling and going to get anywhere, they unable to pay Peking's high must eventually show a tougher price for peace.

Nikita Khrushchev's scalp and even risk new tensions. It is doubtful the new regime wants to alarm the Soviet people with a prospect of a turn backward toward Stalinism. It does not want to alarm the European Communist satellites, which have had a faint taste of independence. It does not want to alarm West European Communists, whose only prospects for gains lie in lulling the opposition.

Tension Eases In N. Rhodesia

Prime Minister Retreats From Self-Rule Threat

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP) — The crisis over Rhodesia eased today after Prime minister Ian Smith's retreat from his threat to proclaim independence for the white-ruled East African territory.

Bowing to a stiff warning from Britain's Labor government, Smith said in a television interview Thursday: "The British government's moves of the past week have upset everything and I can see no prospect of independence by Christmas as I had hoped."

Smith also told the Rhodesian Parliament he would not regard the expected "yes" vote in a referendum next Thursday as a mandate for a unilateral declaration of independence from Britain.

Motion Approved
Parliament approved Smith's motion "that the House takes note of the attitude of the British government toward the independence issue and rejects any policy based on the result of the referendum." It then adjourned until Feb. 23.

But Smith remained adamant in his opposition to British demands for a constitution assuring ultimate control of Rhodesia to the black majority.

Upholstery Supplies Available

Q Where may I mail order upholstery and furniture repair supplies? I am at present particularly interested in cane for chair bottoms.

A Many large mail order houses stock general upholstery and furniture repair materials. Among these, they may also have the cane. Or contact your local Association for the Blind. The booklet, "How To Repair Remodel Refinish Furniture," published at nominal cost by Home Craftsman, Rock Island, Ill., contains an appendix listing sources for various materials.

Q Our kitchen is tiled with white ceramic tile. The stove corner has become quite brown-stained, with fine cracks, from many years of use. What can I use to try to whiten them and fill in the cracks between?

A Regret to say that replacement is the only satisfactory solution for this type of deterioration and aging. If the "cracks between" are missing grout, this can be replaced (if you are not replacing the tile itself), with caulking material widely available in tube form at many hardware stores, hardware and variety stores.

Trujillo Family Scattered In Exile; Enjoy Lavish Life

BY HAROLD K. MILKS

MADRID, Spain (AP) — A black limousine glides up to a modern apartment house off Madrid's fashionable Generals Avenue. A husky footman-bodyguard springs from the right front seat; two Spanish police guards snap to attention at the building entrance. From the car emerges Maria Martinez Trujillo, widow of the former dictator of the Dominican Republic and titular head of the fabulously wealthy, exiled Trujillo clan. She receives all the deference due a member of royalty. Inside her lavish apartment she presides over the family and its fortune, yet recalls longingly the Trujillos' better days. The downfall of the House of Trujillo began on a lonely road outside Santo Domingo, then Ciudad Trujillo, May 30, 1961, when political opponents shot dictator Rafael Leonidas Trujillo. For three decades he and his family had ruled the Caribbean nation as their fief.

Maintain Elegance

Although stripped of power, the surviving Trujillos continue to live in splendor in exile. They also have been involved in some well-publicized family feuds and litigations, including a suit by some of the dictator's illegitimate children seeking a share of the family wealth.

Last August, Rhadames Trujillo, one of the dictator's sons, was jailed in France on an extradition warrant from Switzerland in connection with the suit brought by the have-not branch of the family. Rhadames promptly posted nearly $2-million cash bond to obtain his release.

The Trujillos try to avoid the spotlight. They do not wish to embarrass Spain's Generalissimo Francisco Franco, who night withdraw his hospitality.

Dominican Extradition
There is a formal extradition request hanging over Rafael Jr., the dictator's oldest son. The Dominican government wants to try him on murder charges.

Rafael now shuns the Madrid night clubs he once favored. When not with his mother or with his wife and infant son in their Madrid hotel suite, he devotes himself to raising racing horses and polo ponies at the family stables with his brother-in-law, ex-Gen. Jose Luis Leon Estvez. The handsome Estvez married Rafael's sister, Angelita. They live in a mansion in another section of Madrid where one of their neighbors is Juan D. Peron, the former dictator of Argentina. Other members of the family are scattered elsewhere in Europe and the Americas. He last dictator's brother, Gen. Jose Arismendi Trujillo, left Spain for Central America last year after a quarrel with the widow. Another brother, Hector Trujillo Molina, lives with his American wife, the former Alma Alton McLaughlin, in the posh resort of Estoril, outside Lisbon.

Your Problems

Staying Away From Polls on Election Day Expresses Nothing

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am neither a Republican nor a Democrat. I am an independent who voted for Eisenhower in '56 and Kennedy in '60. At the moment I am disenchanted with both candidates for the presidency. I've decided the best way to express my dissatisfaction is to sit home on election day and read a good book. My wife is a strong party member but I'm not saying which party she is strong for. She is presently working hard for a candidate on whom she is not completely sold. Her rationale is this: "He is a second-rater, but the candidate running against him is a fifth-rater."

My wife insists it is stupid to sit home on election day but she can't tell me why. I don't think you can tell me either, but I'm asking. Isn't this the best way to express dissatisfaction? — Ballot Box Blues

Dear Box: Sitting it out on election day expresses nothing — except a denial of your responsibility as a citizen.

Someone is going to be elected, whether you vote or not. Maybe you don't have the senior hats for either of the candidates but unless you've been living in a cave these last six weeks surely you must have read and heard enough to make an intelligent choice.

How anyone can be undecided this time is beyond me. Exercise your franchise, Buddy Boy!

DEAR ANN LANDERS: The letter from the 48-year-old man who gave the widow a large diamond engagement ring brought back some unpleasant memories. Having been in the same situation myself I can tell you that people can be pretty mean. So please, Ann, don't be too critical of the engaged lady who kept her ring in the drawer. When I first appeared at work wearing my 2 carat diamond, the office supervisor said, "Was Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tesch, that his first wife's ring?" I answered, "I really don't know. I didn't have the nerve to ask him." Another cat announced, "A perfect stone that size would cost a fortune. Your ring probably has some flaws."

Appleton Needs Better Lighting

Electrical Inspector Tells of Inadequate Street Illumination

There is a need for better street lighting in Appleton, acting electrical inspector Joseph Schoenhaar said Tuesday night.

Schoenhaar made his statement in a letter to the council's public safety committee.

He requested the city invite the Wisconsin Michigan Power Co. to submit a plan for upgrading the entire street-lighting system.

"In the past year, as I have been called upon to check street lighting resolutions, I found much to be desired for good street lighting throughout the city," Schoenhaar said.

Dim Side Streets
In some areas the street lighting patterns favor primary streets and leave the side streets with little or no light, Schoenhaar reported.

"Many of the fixtures are obsolete, and mountings are of various directions," Schoenhaar said.

Also, much of the effectiveness of street lighting is lost because of tree foliage, he added.

Ald. Arthur Mueller (19th) said he noticed there are many street lights out and suggested they be reported immediately.

He was told police officers notify the power company when ever lights are not working.

Pat Lucey, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, has been an outstanding success in business and is one of our state's best known citizens. He will work hard to bring new business and industry into our state.

Menasha Youth Found Guilty of Theft Charge

CHILTON — A 19-year-old Menasha youth pleaded no contest and was found guilty in Calumet County Court Wednesday of charges of theft and burglary.

David Stuck, 105 Manitowish St., Menasha, was arrested Sept. 22 by Sheriff C. J. Kosmosky in connection with the Sept. 8 break-in at a Waverly Beach tavern.

Stuck was arraigned Sept. 23 and a preliminary hearing was set on the burglary charge for Sept. 28. He pleaded innocent to the theft charge. A $500 property bond and $200 cash bond R. S. was posted.

Sentencing on both counts was postponed until Nov. 18 pending a pre-sentence investigation by the State Department of Public Welfare ordered by Calumet County Judge D. H. Sebor.

Impaired Circulation Cause of Leg Cramps

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Almost every morning, I awaken with severe cramps from my knees to the bottoms of my feet. I have to get up immediately to overcome the cramps. Rubbing with alcohol before I go to bed doesn't seem to help. I am in my mid-20's. — MRS. Dr. Molner R. S.

Your age puts you in a different category from the older folks who have leg cramps and foot pains, even though some of the same basic factors may be involved. Impaired circulation is one.

However, I suspect muscle spasms resulting from such things as arch defects, a shoe problem, varicose veins, excessive smoking and inadequate calcium in the diet.

Shifting from high heels during the day to low heels at night can cause cramps in the back of the leg. If this is the case, wearing a more conservative heel during the day is advisable.

Massage of the leg muscles as well as of the feet may help. I have no objection to the use of rubbing alcohol, but just plain massage will probably do as much good in this instance.

You'd better consult your doctor as to whether varicose veins which impair circulation or arch defects are involved.

Being Overweight
But if you are overweight, you won't need your doctor to tell you that. It's a frequent element in such cramps, as well as in other troubles.

If you smoke a lot, try cutting out tobacco for a while and see if it makes a difference. As to calcium in your diet — do you try to get a glass or two of milk every day, or cottage cheese? (Skim milk contains just as much calcium but avoids calories if you have a weight problem.)

One other possibility is a drop in your blood sugar level. This can occur long after dinner and thus bring on cramps while you are asleep. A bedtime snack can postpone such a drop in blood sugar — and breakfast then gives you a pick-up. But I'd investigate the other possible causes of the cramps before assuming that the blood sugar level is responsible.

Dear Dr. Molner: Two months after my daughter's marriage one tube was removed because of an ectopic pregnancy. What is her chance of becoming pregnant again? Would both tubes have been removed without her knowledge? Have there been cases of pregnancy after this operation? — MRS. E. R.

There have been any number of pregnancies following such an operation, assuming that the remaining tube and ovary are functioning properly.

No, the other tube would not have been removed without her knowledge. If there is any question, your daughter's medical record, the surgeon's record and hospital record would immediately answer it.

Dear Dr. Molner: What is the growth rate of fingernails, toenails and hair? — MRS. D. C.

Fingernails grow about one eighth of an inch a month, on the average. Toenails grow somewhat more slowly.

Hair growth varies quite a bit, depending on location, age and health of the individual, and length of the hair.

With men, hair growth on the chin averages about three-eighths of an inch per month. Hair on the crown of the head, armpit and eyebrow grow less rapidly, in that order.

A Word About the Pageant Poll

Since publication of the so-called Pageant Poll, which attacks outstanding Senators like Bill Proxmire of Wisconsin and Paul Douglas of Illinois, nationally-recognized authorities have spoken out about the value of this "poll." Some of the more pointed comments are printed below.

SPECIAL NOTE:

This same Pageant Poll, in 1961, rated ROBERT A. TAIT as the 4th worst senator in Washington! Yet, just a few years later, the United States Senate voted him to be one of the five greatest Senators of all time!

"I never heard of the Pageant Poll. It sounds ridiculous to me."
JAMES RESTON, former Chief of the New York Times Washington Bureau

"The Pageant Poll is the least meaningful poll of any I have ever seen. I cannot take this poll at all seriously."
LOUIS BEAN, nationally-known authority on public opinion polls

"I have never heard of the Pageant Poll. Polls like this are meaningless."

Red Chinese May Produce H-Bomb

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Philip Abelson, a nuclear scientist and editor of Science magazine, says the Red Chinese could conceivably produce a hydrogen bomb in the latter part of the 1960s.

In an editorial in the latest issue of the magazine, Abelson said the possibility stems from indications reported by the Atomic Energy Commission that the Red Chinese used uranium 235 for the atomic device they exploded Oct. 16.

Goldwater Concentrating on Texas' 25 Electoral Votes

However, Most Polls Give the Edge to President Johnson

BY GARTH JONES

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater is making an all-out effort to capture the 25 electoral votes of Texas. But Johnson appears to hold the lead. A "semifinal" survey taken by a national pollster among 7,007 Texans in early October brought forth the prediction the Johnson-Humphrey ticket would get 64 per cent of the Texas vote. Goldwater-Miller 29 per cent, 7 per cent undecided. A Houston Chronicle survey taken within the last two weeks favored the Democrats with a 57-43 per cent prediction. A "popcorn poll" on patrons of a Texas theater chain gave Johnson a 59-40 edge. Until 1952, Texas was considered traditionally Democratic and a part of the Solid South. Ticket switching and spitting swung the state to the Republicans in 1952 and 1956. In 1960, John F. Kennedy switched it back to the Democrats by a margin of 46,000 votes out of 2.3 million cast.

1960 Defeat
 "The Republican party in Texas was born in the 1960 defeat," said Marion Findlay of Austin, a state party spokesman.

"The year 1964 is the year of golden opportunity for Texas Republicans," said State GOP Chairman Peter O'Donnell.

An Associated Press survey of precinct level campaigning in some of Texas largest cities last week showed that Republican grassroots workers started first, with the most zeal. Democrats are working hard to catch up.

Ticket splitting — voting for some candidates in the Democratic column and others in the Republican column of the ballot — is an old Texas custom.

Ticket Splitting
 Party strategists point to the gap between the one-half per cent victory margin for Democrats in 1960 and the 1.4 million that voted in this year's Democratic primary compared to only 143,000 in the Republican primary.

"Ticket splitting may well be the main issue of this campaign," said George Bush, Houston millionaire oil man and GOP senatorial nominee against Democratic Sen. Ralph Yarborough. He accused Yarborough of telling voters that a split vote could jam voting machines in the 17 large city counties that do not use the paper ballot.

Big Vote

Party officials of both sides predict the Bush-Yarborough race — in which some polls have Yarborough leading by less than two percentage points — will help turn out more than 2.5 million of the almost three million qualified voters.

Bush and other statewide GOP candidates strongly support Goldwater. Sometimes they travel in "Goldwater Bandwagon" buses.

Yarborough has appeared with President Johnson on every opportunity in Texas and brags about the President's support.

Texas Gov. John B. Connally, who was born in the 1960 defeat, said state party control earlier this year and has done no active campaigning for the senator. Connally has made no formal campaign against his Republican opponent Jack Crichton of Dallas, and in recent weeks has campaigned for the national ticket with the President and Mrs. Johnson.

Poll Tax

Since Texas is one of the few states still requiring payment of a poll tax — $1.75 — the entire ballot of national, state and local candidates, plus three proposed state constitution changes, will be open only to the 2.4 million with poll tax receipts and those with exemptions for over and under age. Another 84,300 get a free vote for the federal candidates only because of the federal antipoll tax ban.

Civil rights has not been a direct issue in Texas campaigning. However, in the past the Negro and Latin-American vote has been considered largely Democratic. This year the estimated total of 375,000 qualified Negro voters is 75,000 higher than last year. Republicans have tried to organize "Arriba Goldwater" groups to counteract Democratic "Viva Johnson" groups.

Little People

"We have to concentrate on contacting the little people and the Democrats concentrate on the jefes" — chiefs — complained Dr. George Willeford of Harlingen, GOP area leader in the Rio Grande Valley.

Texas daily newspapers have overwhelmingly endorsed the Democratic ticket. Twenty-three dailies are supporting Johnson while only four have endorsed Goldwater. In 1960 the Texas dailies were about evenly divided between the Democratic and Republican candidates.

Endorsed Bush

Several daily newspapers endorsing the Democratic president and vice presidential team have endorsed Bush, the GOP senatorial nominee.

Former Democratic Gov. Allan Shivers is one of the leaders of Texas Democrats for Bush. He has endorsed Johnson. Former Democratic Gov. Coke Stevenson has announced his support for Goldwater. Stevenson is the man Johnson defeated by 87 votes in the 1948 Texas Democratic primary which sent Johnson to the U.S. Senate.

Ezra Williams, Ex-City Clerk, Dies at 95

Served 1904 to 1928, Then Operated Book Store in Appleton

Ezra L. Williams, 95, a former Appleton city clerk for 24 years, died early today.

Williams, who formerly lived at 327 E. Pacific St., served as city clerk from 1904 to 1928, and later operated a book and magazine store and postal station in downtown Appleton from 1929 until his retirement in 1947.

Williams was born Jan. 25, 1869, in Franklin County, N. Y. He came to Antigo in 1891, and two years later moved to Appleton where he resided until his death.

Williams worked as a railroad brakeman until injured in 1903. He then became active in work for the Appleton Republican Party organization, and in 1904 was appointed city clerk. During his term as city clerk Appleton adopted the commission form of government from 1911 to 1918 and then returned to the aldermanic form.

He was a life member of the Knights of Pythias. Williams is survived by two sons and one sister.

Private funeral services will be conducted Monday in the Wichmann Funeral Home with the Rev. Leonard A. Ziemer officiating. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 to 9 p.m. Sunday.

Appleton Police Seek Motorist in Hit, Run

Appleton police are seeking a hit and run motorist who crashed into a traffic signal at about 11:20 a.m. Thursday and was restored at 11:20 a.m. by utilizing alternate circuits in the utility's micro-wave system which also serves Green Bay. The cable itself was back in operation about 20 minutes later.

Telephone Co. officials said the break was located about light, broke it off and left the three miles east of Appleton, scene. The incident occurred about 2:30 a.m. at Richmond Street and College Avenue.

Police found evidence at the scene which they are using in tracing the motorist.

Party Voters Must Pull Extra Lever for Presidential Choice

24,000 Appleton Residents Are Registered; Polling Places Set

BY WILLIAM C. CAREY

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Better take a good look at the ballot when entering the polls Tuesday or you may forget to vote for your presidential choice.

The advice to "give the ballot a good look" came today from City Clerk Elden Broehm and was directed mostly at those who may be thinking of voting a straight ticket.

Anyone voting a straight ticket still must reach up and pull one of the levers beneath the blue-colored presidential ballot on the upper left hand side.

"If anyone votes a straight ticket and then leaves the booth, they will not have cast a ballot for president," Broehm said.

"You must vote separately for your presidential choice," he emphasized.

Broehm said the possibility that residents may forget to pull the presidential lever—even if they vote a straight ticket—popped up several times during discussion at Thursday night's election school for poll workers.

There can be no ticket-splitting for the vice presidential candidates, Broehm added.

"If you vote for Johnson you get Humphrey and if you vote for Goldwater you get Miller," Broehm said.

There are 24,000 Appleton residents registered to vote in Tuesday's election.

The polling places for Tuesday's election:

Appleton Man, John J. Dixon, Leads Outagamie County Appeal

John J. Dixon, Appleton, has been named county chairman to 1957 when working in Rockford, Ill. The Outagamie County Tuberculosis Association will mail 25,000 appeal letters containing about 75,000 sheets of Christmas seals on Nov. 16, the day the Christmas Seal drive is launched nationally. The drive will run through Jan. 1.

A goal of $15,000 has been set for the 1964 drive in the county. About $10,000 was raised last year. Fifty per cent of the funds are retained by the county for its anti-tuberculosis program, and the remainder goes to the state association.

Local chairmen working with Dixon on the Christmas Seal drive will be Al Stoegbauer, Appleton; Oscar Pynnönen, Bear Creek; Orville Sell, Black Creek; Mrs. John Scherer, Combined Locks; Mrs. Harvey Ebbert, Hortonville; Mrs. Norbert Gerend, Kaukauna; Mrs. Scott Wildenberg, Kimberly; Mrs. P. A. Langedyke, Little Chute; Mrs. Milo Singler, Shiocton, and the Methodist Youth Fellowship, Seymour.

The Appleton Golden Age Club will aid the drive by putting labels on envelopes Wednesday. The Lady Elks and the American Legion Auxiliary will stuff envelopes Nov. 10.

Railroad Crossing Closings Delayed

Olson Claims Reynolds Using School Plans to Political Advantage

Knowles, Byrnes, Lorge Give GOP Pep Talks to Motorcade Followers

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

SEYMOUR—Outagamie County Republicans got "pep talks" here holding hands with each other, from three of their party leaders here Thursday noon.

In the midst of the county party's motorcade which went through Greenville, Hortonville, New London, Shiocton, Black Creek, Seymour, Kaukauna, Little Chute, Combined Locks, Kimberly and Appleton, the group stopped off here at the Hotel Seymour for a noon lunch.

The auto caravan ended up at the American Legion Club outside of Appleton Thursday night where Lt. Gov. Jack Olson accused Democratic Gov. Reynolds of "using plans for locating a four-year University of Wisconsin branch in northeastern Wisconsin for political advantage."

The pep talks at noon came from Eighth District Rep. John Byrnes, Green Bay; gubernatorial candidate Warren Knowles, New Richmond, and State Sen. Gerald Lorge, Bear Creek.

Lorge made a flat prediction to the luncheon crowd of about 125 people

"I predict Warren Knowles will win Tuesday's election by 30,000 votes." Lorge said. He also cautioned the GOP group "you can't win votes by sitting here holding hands with each other. Get out and meet the voters," he said, "hard make sure all the other people in your block get to the polls to vote next Tuesday. We need every vote we can get because some of these contests may be decided by just a few votes."

Knowles echoed Lorge's sentiments. "All the polls you read about come from the Eastern establishment and they aren't accurate about Sen. Goldwater's chances."

"With all of you doing the job you're capable of doing," Knowles said, "we can win Wisconsin's 12 electoral votes for Barry Goldwater, plus a complete slate of Republican state officers, Senate candidate Wilbur Reink, congressional candidate Rep. John Byrnes, and all the courthouse candidates."

He also praised Tailor Peterson, Appleton, the state Republican chairman, and Mrs. Peterson "because nobody I know has worked harder in behalf of the Republican Party and its causes."

Byrnes bitterly denounced and served a copy on the rail-

campaign talks of the national state Democratic organization during a half-hour speech.

He accused Democrats of "distortions, fabrications and failure to discuss the issues."

Byrnes rapped Reynolds for "trying to take credit for Republican programs." He cited enactment of the Kerr-Mills medical - care-for-the-aged bill and the foreign trade mission conducted by Olson.

He criticized Democrats for trying to paint the image that

Two Waupaca County weekly newspapers have been threatened with bombings, and their publishers' and editors' lives have been threatened, if they continue publishing Republican Party advertising.

The first threat letter was sent by "the Committee of Common Sense, a group of 50 men," to the Waupaca County Post Saturday. The letter included a clipping of a Republican Party advertisement that appeared in the County Post. The GOP advertisement said, "Don't let the Democrats take away our county traffic patrol. Keep government at home... where you can have a voice in it! Vote Republican."

The threat letter said, "You will stop at once publishing the thrash you are printing about your big shots Republicans... if it happens again we are going to do some 'sic' something drastic by blowing up you and your place of business and others connected with you. Quit now while the living is good to you or maybe you won't even live."

County Post Editor Robert Harrison said today, "We feel threats of this nature shouldn't be issued lightly or taken lightly." Harrison turned his letter over to city police. Police Chief Fred Rasmussen said today his office has some leads into the incident and some suspects.

The other newspaper, the New London Press, received a similar threat, but directed to its publisher, Gordon O. Culver. Culver's name was listed in the advertisements in the County Post cited in the letter because Culver is county GOP treasurer.

Culver, who also was threatened with tar-and-feathering, apparently not taking the threat seriously, wrote in today's Press:

"I would hide in Lebanon, Swamp north of New London until the 'danger' is past. Culver left the city Thursday, and when a Post-Crescent reporter attempted to reach him at the Press office today, he was told Culver is hiding in the swamp."

Before leaving for his hideout, Culver said, "For several years I've held what I considered a harmless and almost anonymous position entitled treasurer of the Waupaca County Republican Party. There never was a Party dancer in it."

Both letters were published in the County Post today. Harrison said today, "We feel threats of this nature shouldn't be issued lightly or taken lightly." Hearing Set In Madison On Thursday

City Atty. Frederick Froehlich obtained a court order at Madison Thursday which in effect ordered the Chicago and North Western Railway Co. to temporarily halt the barricading of crossings here.

Judge Norris Maloney, sitting in Dane County Circuit Court, Madison, signed a show cause order drafted by Froehlich. He asked the court to grant a stay of the recent Public Service Commission order giving the railroad permission to close seven crossings.

Froehlich, on behalf of the City of Appleton, has petitioned the court for a review of the order.

In granting the stay, Judge Maloney set 3:30 p.m. Thursday about come from the Eastern establishment and they aren't accurate about Sen. Goldwater's chances.

He also praised Tailor Peterson, Appleton, the state Republican chairman, and Mrs. Peterson "because nobody I know has worked harder in behalf of the Republican Party and its causes."

Byrnes bitterly denounced and served a copy on the rail-

campaign talks of the national state Democratic organization during a half-hour speech.

He accused Democrats of "distortions, fabrications and failure to discuss the issues."

Byrnes rapped Reynolds for "trying to take credit for Republican programs." He cited enactment of the Kerr-Mills medical - care-for-the-aged bill and the foreign trade mission conducted by Olson.

He criticized Democrats for trying to paint the image that

Democrats to Tour County in Caravan Today

Party's Candidates To be in Motorcade, Rally Tonight

Outagamie County Democratic candidates will travel through-out the county in a campaign caravan tonight.

The caravan will begin at 6 p.m. in the Treasure Island parking lot. From there, it will travel to Greenville, Hortonville, New London, Shiokor, Black Creek, Seymour, Kaukauna, Combined Locks, Little Chute and Kimberly.

The motorcade will make stops in the main business district of each community. From Kimberly, the caravan will travel west on College Avenue in Appleton to Valley Fair Shopping Center for a rally at 9 p.m. County Democratic candidates will speak there.

Undersheriff Norbert Marx and James Kampo are in charge of the motorcade.

The county Democratic women's group will return to Valley Fair at 8:30 a.m. Monday to give free coffee to shoppers attending the farmers' market. This is the group's final pre-election event.

In charge are Mrs. Roland and over 10,000 deaths were recorded in 1963.

The goal of the Christmas Seal program is to completely eradicate TB in the county and the state, they said.

Surveys show that almost every family in Outagamie County has received some benefit from the anti-tuberculosis program, the association's officials said.

is a positive reactor to the skin test, T B Association officials say. The association's aim is to find all of them and record them for follow-up, because each is a potential TB case, they say.

In 1963 tuberculosis increased alarmingly across the county, the officials say. In 39 large cities the increases in TB cases were up to 20 per cent. In Wisconsin the number remained about steady, they said, but nationally more than 50,000 new deaths were recorded in 1963.

KVS Supervisory Seminar Planned

KAUKAUNA — An advanced seminar in "Supervisory Techniques and Practices" for supervisors and foremen in industry, business and institutional work will get underway at the Vocational and Adult School Nov. 17.

The seminar consists of three Tuesday sessions which will get underway at 8:30 a.m. and continue throughout the day. Dr. Russell L. Moberly, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and holder of three degrees, is instructor.

His major concentrations of studies were in the fields of educational administration, finance, business management and psychology. Dr. Moberly was the originator and former director of the Management Institute at the University of Wisconsin and former director of the Management Center and professor of Business Administration at Marquette University.

Enrollments are to be made at the school by Nov. 10.

Janitor Interrupts Youth Starting Fire

A janitor at the Columbus Club, 1524 W. Second St., told Appleton police Thursday afternoon he had interrupted a youth who seemed intent at starting a small fire at the clubhouse headquarters. The youth ran from the man and has not been caught.

Detectives said the youth had apparently piled up a small amount of straw near the rear of the building and was lighting matches when he was seen by the janitor about 2:30 p.m.

Mayor Returns to Office

Mayor Clarence Mitchell was back in his office today after spending two days at Appleton Memorial Hospital for his annual checkup.

Adult Members of St. John United Church of Christ attend one of a series of "colony meetings" planned to explain the proposed building program and the church's needs to all members of the congregation. From left are Earl Brinkman, campaign chairman; Mrs. Aldo Montonati; Miss Hilda Haefs; and Robert Lieske, chairman of the group meetings committee. Meetings are held in homes of members. A fund drive is planned in November, and the congregation hopes to start construction of new church facilities next year. Post-Crescent Photo.

Democrats Win In Mock Election At Kimberly High

KIMBERLY — A mock election was staged by Kimberly High School Wednesday and if results of high school young is any indication, it will be a Democratic landslide.

Prior to the election, students in the social problems class held a campaign to promote the candidates. To give students an idea of how a party convention was held, Frank authorized the group to hold a regular convention at which a platform was set up and candidates selected. Named for the third or independent party by students were Romney and Keating.

In voting by all but 20 students, the Johnson - Humphrey ticket captured 315 votes, the Goldwater - Miller ticket 50 votes and the Romney-Keating ticket 32 votes. In the race for governor, Reynolds was given 7,342 votes to 74 for Knowles and 73 for the independent. The remainder of state and county offices were also heavily Democratic.

Clergy Urges Brave Look at Birth Control

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Cardinals and bishops urged the Vatican Ecumenical Council today to undertake a fearless new look at all aspects of traditional Roman Catholic teaching on birth control.

Leo Jozef Cardinal Suenens of Brussels, Belgium, put the matter squarely to the world wide assembly of Roman Catholic prelates in St. Peter's, telling them:

"We must not be afraid to look at our traditional doctrine to see if it represents the final word. Let us see if there is not a new approach that can be taken."

SC Approves Swamp Dike in Brown County

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The state Public Service Commission has modified, and tentatively approved, a plan for constructing a long dike in swamp lands adjacent to Duck Creek in the village of Howard, Brown County, for development of a muskrat farm. The plan was filed by Milton J. Barlament of route 4, Green Bay, who owns the lands once granted by the United States government to the state, and sold by the state many years ago.

Barlament proposed to build a dike near the base of Duck Creek, enclosing most of his property.

The commission specified, however, that he must modify the plan to exclude a portion of the dike which was designed to run beyond the government meander line at the east end of the project, and which would otherwise enclose an area between that line and the open water of Green Bay.

The lake bed underlying such water is held in trust by the state for public use, the commission noted.

The agency approved the dike on condition that it be built within the meander line, to avoid obstruction of navigation and the reduction of the effective flood flow capacity of the stream.

Barlament was told that he cannot begin construction, however, until he has submitted a map showing the relocated dike, the property lines, and the government meander line drawn to scale, "to protect the public interest."

Curtis Bynum, a Founder of Appleton Paper Co., Dies at 82

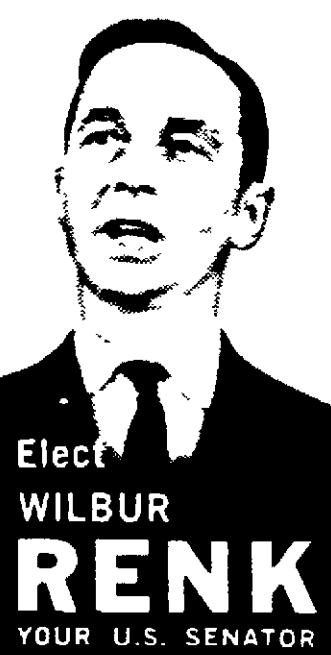

Curtis Bynum, last surviving member of the three organizers of Appleton Coated Paper Co. died this month at 82.

The company's four-tier, president and treasurer Charles S. Boyd along with Robert E. Boyd, vice president, and Bynum, secretary, were the first officers. These three provided the original capital and headed incorporation of the firm in 1907.

Bynum, a native of Asheville, N.C., withdrew from the organization in 1909 to return to his home where he founded and headed Southern Dairies Inc. He was married to Florence Boyd, sister of Charles and Robert Boyd. Survivors include his wife, a daughter and a son.

Schimenz Asks Apprenticeship Plan Changes

State Industrial Commission Chief Talks in Green Bay

Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY—Wisconsin labor, management and education Tuesday was challenged to re-evaluate the state's apprenticeship program, changing it if necessary in light of the ever-increasing need for skilled workers.

The challenge by Matt Schimenz, chairman of the State Industrial Commission, was made at the opening of the commission-sponsored second Labor-Management-Education Apprenticeship Conference here.

The two-day meeting is being attended by almost 400 representatives of Wisconsin unions and businesses, and vocational schools which administer the program.

The conference is divided into workshops for each trade area. This includes carpenters, electricians, masons, painter and decorators, plumbers, iron workers, sheet metal workers, steamfitters, industrial maintenance workers, machinists, foundry workers, graphic art workers, and cosmetologists.

"A New Beginning"

"Consider this conference a new beginning," Schimenz stated. "Let's re-evaluate the apprenticeship program. If it's outdated, let's change it. If it's too costly, let's trim the expenses. If there's too much red tape, let's do something about it."

The conference is at the Hotel Northland with some of the work sessions being held at the YMCA.

At a 6.30 p.m. banquet tonight, the conference is scheduled to hear Dr. Garth Mangum, a recognized authority on manpower economics, will speak on "Apprenticeship and the National Legislation."

Dr. Mangum, a native of Utah, has taught economics at Brigham Young University and Harvard. He has been a consultant to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, senior staff analyst to the Presidential Railroad Committee, a special mediator, a research director of the Senate Subcommittee on Employment and Manpower, and is presently on leave from teaching at Brigham Young.

Pastor Ziemer Again Named to Lutheran Education Board

The Rev. Leonard Ziemer, pastor of First English Lutheran Church, Appleton, has been re-elected to the American Lutheran Church's board of parish education at the second ALC general convention in Columbus, Ohio.

Pastor Ziemer has served on the board since the merger which formed the American Lutheran Church in 1961. He was appointed to fill a vacancy, and the following year was elected to fill two years of the unexpired term. He now has been elected to a full six-year term.

The board is the governing body responsible for all Christian education programs of the local congregations and supervises an executive staff of about 20 persons. These programs include Sunday School materials, adult education materials, teaching training programs, confirmation materials and other Christian educational work. The board is composed of five pastors and four laymen.

What is the argument between the Russian and Chinese Communists all about?

Russian Communists believe: External encirclement plus internal demoralization plus atomic blackmail equals progressive surrender.

Chinese Communists believe in: Internal violent revolution stimulated and led by the Communist Party.

Reduced to essentials, the Russians and Chinese disagree about one thing—what is the quickest and surest way to conquer the United States.

AREAS OF AGREEMENT

There are many more points of agreement between the Russian and Chinese Communists than there are points of disagreement. Both agree on the following:

1. The United States of America is the source of most of the evil in the world and must be destroyed. Both concurred in this definition of the United States which was signed by 81 Communist Parties of the World: "the greatest international exploiter, the center of world reaction, the chief bulwark of modern colonialism, the international gendarme, the main force of aggression and war, and the enemy of the world."
2. The International Communist Movement is the instrument to accomplish this destruction of America.
3. The program by which this destruction is to be carried out is called "Peaceful Co-existence." Both define this as conquest without thermonuclear war.

AREAS OF DISAGREEMENT

The Russians and Chinese disagree over the best methods to follow under the title of peaceful coexistence. The Russian Communists believe that the formula of conquest is—external encirclement plus internal demoralization equals progressive surrender.

RUSSIAN—CHINESE COMMUNIST POLICY FOR U.S. CONQUEST

To carry out their policy, the Russian Communists believe that they should:

1. Encourage wars of "national liberation" in Asia, Africa, and Latin America.
2. Neutralize Western Europe.
3. Demoralize and isolate the United States. Conquest would then come about through a series of "accommodations" with the external encircling, blackmailing communist-dominated world power. They desire a government in power in the U.S. that will agree to these "Accommodations."

The Chinese Communists believe the best method is—internal violent revolution stimulated and led by the Communist Party concentrating upon minority groups, the unemployed workers, and the disgruntled intellectuals.

POLICY WITHIN AMERICA

The official American Communist Party under the leadership of Gus Hall is an obedient servant of the Russian Communists. In accord with Russian strategy, their policy is:

1. Build an image of law abiding respectability for U.S. and Russian communists.
2. Create the image of a phony fascist danger in the United States growing out of an alleged ultra-right conspiracy.
3. Focus the energies of the party on this alleged ultra-right conspiracy by a vicious attack on Senator Barry Goldwater.
4. Give qualified support to programs of the present administration.
5. Infiltrate and influence the Civil Rights movement but keep within its mainstream by supporting the established Civil Rights leaders and organizations.

Those communists in America under the influence of the Chinese Communists advocate the following policies:

1. The communists should proclaim their role as revolutionary leaders and seek to inspire and lead others to acts of revolutionary violence.
2. The attacks should be focused on the party in power.
3. They teach there is no real difference between the nature of the two parties and they have no choice between Senator Goldwater and President Johnson. Their attitude is, "A plague on both your houses."
4. Communists should lead independent Civil Rights groups in open violent rebellion.

THERMONUCLEAR WAR DIFFERENCES

On the record, the Russian Communists have shown greater thermonuclear adventurism. It was the Russian Communists who placed the missiles in Cuba and brought the world to the brink of thermonuclear destruction. The Chinese Communists did not reprove them for removing the missiles but for putting them there. They claimed this was a departure from fundamental communist principles. The official Chinese Communist statement on the question of missiles in Cuba is as follows: "The Communist Party of China and the Chinese people have always maintained that the course of history is decided by the great strength of the masses of the people and not by any weapons. On more than one occasion we have made it clear that we neither called for the establishment of missile bases in Cuba nor obstructed the withdrawal of the so-called 'offensive weapons' from Cuba. WE HAVE NEVER CONSIDERED THAT IT WAS A MARXIST-LENINIST ATTITUDE TO BRANDISH NUCLEAR WEAPONS AS A WAY OF SETTling INTERNATIONAL DISPUTES. Nor have we ever considered that the avoidance of a thermonuclear war in the Caribbean crisis was a 'Munich.'"

THE GREATER PERIL

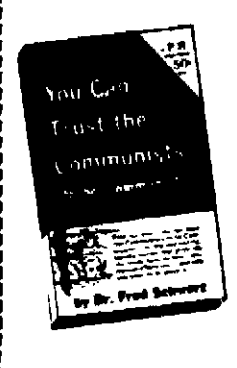

Both forms of communist strategy are evil and dangerous. When communists, following the advice of the Chinese, lead violent mobs to arson, murder and pillage on the streets, the American people become aroused. Nevertheless, the greater threat to the continued existence of a free America comes from the subtle, clever, integrated program of Russian communism. If concern is focused on the obvious Chinese Communist activities, while the Russian Communist strategy continues without recognition or opposition, the communists will have won a great and possibly a decisive victory. You are just as dead if you are strangled slowly as if you are shot or stabbed.

Both Sides Get Support From Other Sources

Many Don't Really Agree With Views Of Their Candidate

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Seldom has there been a presidential contest in which so many persons on each side who intend to vote for their chosen candidate don't really subscribe to his views as expressed in the campaign. This phenomenon could have far-reaching consequences in the development of domestic and foreign policies during the next administration no matter who wins.

Many of the supporters of President Johnson who are themselves "conservative" are inclined to believe that, when the chips are down, he will be found on that side of the argument. Many of these same people also don't believe he will pursue a policy on "civil rights" that would lead to enforced integration. They are convinced that anyone who voted on some of these issues as Mr. Johnson did when he was a senator is bound to find some reason to revert to earlier concepts on certain questions.

To put it in a nutshell, a vast number of those citizens as well as many of those organizations or publications which have come out for Mr. Johnson are wishfully hoping that, if he is inaugurated President in January, he will be different from the man who presented himself to the voters during the campaign. Mr. Johnson has used so many generalities in expressing his views that he has left himself considerable flexibility to move either way on several controversial questions.

Goldwater Opponents

On ideological positions, Mr. Johnson isn't regarded with enthusiasm by most of the so-called "liberals" or the "moderates" who have jumped on the Democratic "bandwagon" this time. They are supporting Lyndon Johnson to a large extent because they don't favor Barry Goldwater. This, of course, portends considerable controversy once the shaping of policy confronts Mr. Johnson if he should be elected for the next four years. Actually, many of these same people would have preferred Hubert Humphrey for the top spot, since he speaks their language and is at heart in sympathy with their beliefs, whether these be called "liberal" or "radical" or "socialistic."

The Arizona Senator is in much the same position as Mr. Johnson with respect to the nature of some of the support behind him. The Republican nominee has, of course, many ardent followers who really look upon him as a dedicated leader. Not all of them have been Republicans in the past, as may be noted, for example, in the South.

Perhaps the biggest handicap faced by Sen. Goldwater is the hostility of "moderates" or "liberals" in his own party who dealt what may prove a fatal blow to his election chances in their behavior during and after the Republican National Convention at San Francisco. These disappointed Republicans have not only held themselves aloof — as many of them in congress and in state offices haven't even endorsed their national ticket — but have continued their sullenness throughout the campaign.

The resentments over their course are deep and will be manifest at the party convention and at the polls in 1968. For if Mr. Goldwater is defeated next week, it will be hard to convince many Republicans that desertion of their party by fellow Republicans of the "liberal" bloc was not to a large extent responsible.

From GOP

It was from this faction of the Republican party that the talk of "recklessness" and "irresponsibility" was first heard. The Democrats picked up the epithets and have persuaded many voters that Barry Goldwater would be "trigger-happy." The truth is that, if elected, he would unquestionably be a cabinet-type president and not likely to conduct a one-man operation, as some presidents in recent years have done in taking certain steps that have proved mistaken.

tioned. Surely there was ample opportunity to debate on its merits every issue of major importance. But the tendency on both sides has been to resort largely to personalities. One candidate makes a speech that provokes the other, and there is a rebuttal in similar vein, though two wrongs certainly do not make a right.

Small wonder that many citizens are not happy about the current campaign and are glad it is coming to an end. They look forward to a real debate on governmental policies in the months ahead, which they hope to see carried on in a dignified way so that the elected chief executive may be guided by an informed public opinion.

All of State Now In Operating School Districts

Years of Quarreling Finally Results in Total Incorporation

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — After five years which produced quarreling, litigation and spirited maneuvering in scores of Wisconsin localities, the state has attained for all practical purposes its declared objective of incorporating all territory within operating high school districts.

The signal for the successful completion of the campaign launched against considerable political obstacles by the state department of public instruction came when the state supreme court turned down the city of LaCrosse in a key appeal from an order attaching a substantial area of rural territory to the LaCrosse city high school district for high school purposes.

The state department of public instruction says there now remains only one small territory yet not attached to a high school district under the law which set a July 1, 1962 deadline for such attachment.

Green County District

The district involved is Juda, in Green County.

Little Chute in Outagamie County has been granted an extension of time for compliance with the state order so that it can try to form its own high school district. The proposal passed in a referendum in July, 1963 and the newly formed district has until July, 1966, to be constructed of a high school.

The supreme court decision in the LaCrosse case was a complete and explicit assertion of the constitutionality of the legislative act, and the right of the state department of public instruction to order such attachments under legislative powers delegated to it.

New 'Portable Pension' Provision in Canada

BY SYLVIA PORTER

Jan. 1 a revolutionary new law will go into effect throughout the Canadian Province of Ontario which is likely to become of immense bread-and-butter importance to tens of millions of workers in our country. In briefest summary, the Ontario law will require all employers to permit employees who are 45 years or older to carry their company pensions from job to job throughout their working lifetime—if they work at least 10 years on each job.

Canada's other provinces are reading similar laws. While no comparable legislation is even on the horizon here, what's happening in our northern neighbor underlines a trend now also growing strongly in the U.S. private pension system.

Until recently most U.S. workers simply forfeited all pension credits if they were laid off or fired, quit their jobs or moved—even after 30 or 40 years of service for a company. The pension they ended with represented only a small fraction of their working life. As a result, most workers wanting to guard their future pension benefits were virtually "locked" to their companies and jobs.

Yet, the need for job mobility never has been greater than it is today as technological change shuffles our work force, eust-

DAN LUEBKE SERVICE RELOCATES. The name's the same, the service is even better, because the location is larger and easier to get to. The new location of one of the valley's most popular automotive service centers is now at the intersection of County Trunk P and Midway Road.

Since 1939, the name of Dan Luebke has meant the very best of the brand of service and professional automotive services to Fox Cities motorists. Several generations of new drivers have learned to rely upon his skills. The changeable weather we've kept the ever-more-complex automobiles we drive in tip-top put an added strain on your family's car. If it's running "ragged" or seems to have lost demands for his efforts, and to some of its pep, chances are give him and his expert staff you should let Dan look it over the opportunity to do an even and discover the causes of the better job in larger and more trouble.

GROWING BIGGER TO SERVE YOU BETTER. The new Schulz Concrete Plant shown above is now in full operation and is ready to serve you promptly and efficiently. Their large fleet of trucks will deliver any amount of concrete. All mixing of aggregates is fully electronically controlled. You are invited to stop in and look over the plant. It is located at 3019 Prospect, Appleton.

Signs of the Fox Cities vitality and growth are everywhere. New business firms, bank and savings and loan facilities, and office buildings are either completed or in some stage of construction. Throughout the area, new homes of every style, size and design are going up, while elsewhere in the country, home-building lags. Aiding in this construction boom, and also reflecting it, is the Schulz Ready Mix Concrete plant of Appleton. The firm has been serving the building needs of area construction firms for over 45 years. Sand and gravel aggregates and the state inspected and approved

Waylite and concrete blocks have been the "cornerstone" of many an important construction project during this period. Now again reflecting the growing demand for their finer products, the firm announces the opening of the new Schulz state Ready Mix Concrete Plant to up to 6 different aggregates for use in one or any number of surrounding rural areas. Any amount of concrete, large or small, for whatever project is at hand is now readily available for delivery from the plant. Its central location at 3019 Prospect Ave., just east of Butte des Morts Golf Course, means that delivery is fast and on time to meet your schedule.

To insure that only quality ready mix concrete is produced, the firm has installed an electronically controlled panel for weighing aggregates. This is the latest panel of its kind in the state. It will weigh and blend up to 6 different aggregates for use in one or any number of surrounding rural areas. Any amount of concrete, large or small, for whatever project is at hand is now readily available for delivery from the plant. Its central location at 3019 Prospect Ave., just east of Butte des Morts Golf Course, means that delivery is fast and on time to meet your schedule.

Tuesday, President Johnson may face a delicate decision taking a hand in replacing him in the Senate leadership.

As whip, or assistant Democratic Senate leader, Humphrey turned in an impressive performance in helping get critical administration legislation passed in Congress this year.

Ordinarily the White House wouldn't give too much attention to the choice of an assistant leader. But Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana has declined to play the whip-cracking leadership role Johnson himself once filled.

Master Mason Degree To be Conferred at Monday Meeting

KAUKAUNA — A 6:30 p.m. pot-luck supper Monday will precede a meeting of Lodge No. 233, Free and Accepted Masons, at which the Master Mason degree will be conferred.

Staged at the Masonic Temple, the dinner will be followed by a 7:30 p.m. business meeting and degree work exemplified by regular lodge officers. Visiting brethren are to be guests of the Lodge. No charge is to be made for the dinner.

Dean Martin
Appears in
BY TV SCOUT

6:30-7:30 (Channel 2) - Rawhide offers Dean Martin his first opportunity to spread his acting wings on television in "Canliss," which has him flying high as a gunslinger of the Old West out to shoot down his town's leading citizen (Michael Ansara).

6:30-7:30 (Channel 4-5) - International Showtime captures highlights from the Berlin Ice Revue, with skating clowns from the German Beer Festival.

7-7:30 (Channel 11) - The Farmer's Daughter, as you might expect in this election year, is off campaigning with her employer Congressman Morley (William Windom). But the race is tougher than Katy (Inger Stevens) expected.

7:30-8 (Channel 11) - The Adams Family settles down, with a ghoully delight, to their night of nights - Halloween.

7:30-8:30 (Channel 2) - The Entertainers, without the services of its leading comedienne, ailing Carol Burnett, calls on the aid of Imogene Coca also crippled to brighten its hours. In top physical shape, however, are Caterina Valentine, John Davidson and funsters Bob Newhart, Dom DeLuise, Tessie O'Shea and Art Buchwald.

7:30-8:30 (Channel 4-5) - Bob Hope Presents Art Carney in an amusing mystery-comedy adapted from a short story in The New Yorker magazine, "The Timothy Heist." (COLOR)

8-8:30 (Channel 11) - Valentine's Day gets a considerable lift in "The Baritone Canary" when Helen Traubel as the mother of series hero Tony Franciosa turns up to aid him in making sure the memoirs of an Italian opera star aren't libelous.

8:30-9 (Channel 4-5) - The Jack Benny Program gets a boost from Connie Francis, the songstress, who shows up in the same ragged outfit she wore last season when she visited Jack.

9-10 (Channel 2) - The Reporter continues to behave as if it were a story outline for a comic script. In tonight's far-fetched episode, Danny Taylor (Harry Guardino) is busy cracking down on phony charity rackets.

9-10 (Channel 4-5) - The Jack Paar Program employs another merry batch of satirists this week - this time the cast from Julius Monk's Plaza 9 musical revue, "Bits and Pieces." (COLOR)

Lawrence Community Artist Series Opener

Oboist Haim Jouvai, associate first chair instrumentalist with the renowned Israel Philharmonic Orchestra, will be featured soloist of the Israel National Youth Symphony GADNA at its concert Monday in Lawrence University Memorial Chapel.

Ma'ayan's score is written in one movement in free form. It uses the music of the Bible - the Bible Cantillations. Two musical styles, the Ashkenazi, or Western tradition, and the Yeminite, are incorporated. The only in part, and are supported by traditional congregation responses to the Cantor's synagogue prayer.

Prize-Winner
The composer was born in 1936 in Tel Aviv. Among his best works, a "Tocata for Harp Solo" won First Prize in the 1962 Second International Harp Competition in Jerusalem.

Monday's program will be the first public event in the newly refurbished Lawrence Memorial Chapel. The $400,000 project was begun last spring.

Tickets for the Israel National Youth Symphony-GADNA are available at the new Lawrence University Box Office, Lawrence Music-Drama Center, 115 N. Park Ave.

Atzman

Like all Israeli youth, including the 45 GADNA Orchestra members, Jouvai was confronted with military service in the Israel Army. During his tour of duty he played in a military band and symphony orchestra, as well as the State Opera Orchestra. He soon became first oboist of the Haifa Symphony, and later was appointed to his present music post with the Philharmonic.

Teacher, Soloist
Today his work includes solo playing, chamber music, and teaching. Jouvai has appeared as soloist and first-dress player under the batons of Krips, Bernstein, Barbirolli, Martinon, Friscay, Wallenstein and other leading conductors. He regularly joins the GADNA Orchestra on important occasions such as its present first American tour. His students already fill a number of important musical positions in Israel.

Recordings by the multi-talented young artist include the Mozart and Cimarosa Concerti, the latter to be performed here. He also has recorded the Second Brandenburg Concerto of Bach, the Haydn Sinfonia Concertante, the Francis Poulenc Concerto, and the Seiber Improvisations. The Cimarosa concerto originally was composed by the great Italian operatic master as a harpsichord sonata. Its adaptation for aboe and strings was made by Australian pianist-composer Arthur Benjamin.

Symphonic Works
Conductor Atzman, also has programmed two particularly familiar symphonic works for the program's opening and finale. His young instrumentalists will begin with Mendelssohn's overture "The Hebrides," subtitled "Fingal's Cave," and will climax their concert with the

High Number Of Servicemen To Cast Ballots

Expect 1.3 Million Absentee Votes From Military

WASHINGTON (AP) — As many as 1.3 million U.S. servicemen may vote by absentee ballot in next Tuesday's presidential election — about 550,000 more than in 1960, defense officials said today.

Many ballots already are on their way to polling officials by mail from American military men and their families in the United States and overseas.

Officials assigned by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to get out the military vote said 60 to 65 per cent of the estimated 2 million eligible servicemen may cast absentee ballots.

Four Years Ago
Four years ago, a total of 735,019 service men voted in this manner — a bit below 40 per cent of the 1,868,597 then eligible.

The Marines have the best record with a 68 per cent voting rate. The Navy came next with 44.2 per cent, the Air Force followed with 38.9 per cent and the Army trailed with 32.4 per cent.

Pentagon officials said hopes for a huge increase in servicemen voting this year stem from actions designed to assure that every man received a federal postcard application for an absentee ballot.

In Hand Distribution
McNamara ordered that commanders make certain an application card was placed in every man's hand. This "in hand" distribution was due to be completed Sept. 25.

Applications for absentee ballots also were available to dependents of servicemen. About 750,000 wives and adult sons and daughters of servicemen are eligible to vote absentee this year, officials tabulated show.

All the 50 states and the District of Columbia have laws authorizing absentee voting. The Appleton Post-Crescent is published daily Monday through Saturday by the Post-Crescent Corp., 304 W. Washington St., Appleton, Wis.

European Communists Accept Kremlin's Explanations of Ousting Premier Khrushchev

MOSCOW (AP) — European closed the 29 charges against Communist parties are failing Khrushchev said they ranged into line behind the new Soviet from failures in international leadership, apparently accepting diplomacy to unwise construction of apartment buildings in Khrushchev was removed for Moscow.

They also accused him of lowering Communist dignity. This was believed to stem from such incidents as his pounding on a United Nations desk with his shoe and his imitating can girls in Hollywood by bending over and raising his coat including those on Cuba and Red China — is being circulated in Soviet Communist party units.

The Hungarian Communist party was the first to endorse Khrushchev's removal, declaring last Sunday that he had made "regrettable mistakes" in 1962. His whole policy in the crisis reportedly was considered unwise.

The document reportedly charges Khrushchev with reducing the ideological dispute with China to a personal dispute between himself and Mao Tse-tung and having offended the Chinese leader.

Khrushchev was said to have been charged with errors also in the Suez crisis of 1956 and with disrupting the work of the Soviet foreign ministry, apparently by making policy decisions without using the normal channels of consideration and by using his son-in-law, newspaper editor Alexei Adzhubei, for diplomatic missions abroad.

The communists made no mention of Khrushchev. But it record with a 68 per cent voting rate. The Navy came next with 44.2 per cent, the Air Force followed with 38.9 per cent and the Army trailed with 32.4 per cent.

4-Year Fox Valley Branch

Educational Auctioneering Charge Levelled at Reynolds by Conway

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Democratic Gov. John W. Reynolds has been accused by a Republican spokesman of "educational auctioneering" over the location of a proposed four-year branch of the University of Wisconsin in the Fox River Valley.

John Conway of Appleton, the 8th District GOP chairman, said in a statement Thursday that he called numerous reports that he carried Brown County.

Similar promises for the university branch have been reported by Appleton people if the governor carries Outagamie and a half years if he is re-elected.

His statement added that "manipulating the University of Wisconsin for political gain is inexcusable."

At Madison, the executive office said that Reynolds considers Conway's statement "calculated to divert attention from the fact that Warren Knowles has been unable to make up his mind—not about the location of traffic death toll and the future of a branch, because that really is of the state's industrial growth but a secondary question—but the depended upon improving the fact of building a branch in the highway system."

Good highways were especially important in the north, Reynolds said, because the section's economy depends upon the tourism that there must be a university in the Fox River Valley.

He said modern roads were essential to cut the mounting cost of the highway system.

Few Back California Housing Amendment

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) Democrat Hugh Burns: the — Few political or religious Republican minority leaders have raised their voices Sen. John F. McCarthy: and in support of a proposed Calif. Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh, a constitutional amendment one of the most powerful Democratic aimed at nullifying most of a crats in the state. Republican senatorial candidate George Murphy has refused to take a stand on the issue.

But the silent voter apparently has made his decision on Proposition 13 without being swayed by the fiery debates over the controversial issue. Recent polls indicate the initiative measure will carry Nov. 3.

Old Hollow Rubber Ball Can Become a Piggy Bank

BY CAPPY DICK

If you have an old, hollow rubber ball among your possessions, you can turn it into a piggy bank by following these directions:

Cut a slot in the ball, making it big enough to receive coins up to the size of a quarter.

Glue a large, white button to the ball as in Figure 1 to represent the pig's nose. Attach two beads with glue for the eyes. The ears are small triangular pieces of felt glued in place.

Glue to Ball

For legs, glue short pieces of stick to the ball. Coil a harpin and stick it into the ball for the pig's tail.

Chuters Seek Undisputed Title Saturday; Hawks Bid for Share Of Conference Championship

Post-Crescent Sports Editor

About six weeks ago, it didn't seem even remotely likely that the Oct. 31 meeting between Appleton Xavier and Little Chute St. John would turn out to be the Fox Valley Catholic Conference's "game of the year." At that time, defending champion Xavier had just finished losing its third straight game (that defeat total exceeded by 50 per cent the Hawks' losses of their first five seasons combined), and St. John, trying to bounce back from two losing seasons, had already lost to Kimberly in a non-conference outing.

Since then, St. John and Xavier have thundered along the victory road to establish themselves as the conference titans. Their head-to-head clash overshadowed any other FVCC game this season.

The Chuters have already assured themselves of at least a share of their first championship since 1959. But they'll have incentives aplenty in Saturday's game on Kaukauna's Bayougreen Field, scheduled for a 2 p.m. start. The Chuters will seek: 1. A clear Title; 2. Their first Fox Valley Catholic Conference unbeaten league record since 1957; and 3. Their first victory ever over Xavier.

Invades DePere

Menasha St. Mary invades DePere Pennings tonight in a battle for third place and possibly a share of second. Other season-closing games will find Marinette at Lourdes Saturday afternoon and Premontre at Springs Saturday night.

The title game shapes up as the most important meeting of the Chuter-Hawk athletic rivalry, which is in its fourth football season and has spanned four basketball campaigns.

The stakes are likewise high for Xavier, the "streakiest" team in the state. The Hawks gridders won 31 straight games, lost three straight and now have won five straight. The Hawks, who have won three successive outright football titles, need a victory to capture a co-crown and keep their perfect title record intact.

Xavier goes into the showdown with the incredibly impressive FVCC football record of 26 wins and one loss in four seasons. The lone defeat came at the hands of Menasha St. Mary, 7-0, in the '64 conference inaugural.

Successful Coaches

Directing the teams' fortunes Saturday will be two of the most respected and successful coaches in the Fox Valley area. St. John's Bill Fitzpatrick has led his teams to seven clear or shared titles in 14 years (including 1957, 1958, 1959, 1960, 1961, 1962, 1963, 1964).

Xavier's coach Herb Simon plans to start Dennis Brinkman, Geoff Garrett, Tom Maves, Steve Kasten, Gary Ahrens, Gary Schinke and Bill Le Dain, with Les Bowers as the alternate.

Weyauwega, which placed second in the Ripon sectional, will likely send John Kempf, Jim Hildebrand, Gary Miller, Tom Rohde, Marilyn Hahn, Daryl Luedke and Bob Averill into action in the small-school division.

Individuals, all of whom will compete in the small-school class, include Chilton's LeRoy Lorenz, Clintonville's Jim Gehling, Hortonville's Al Meyer, Waupaca's Erroll Sorenson and Winneconne's Mel Doherty. All finished among the top five runners in sectional competition.

Madison West will defend its large-school title, with its star runner, Bob Gordon, defending individual honors. Milwaukee Lincoln is the defending titlist in the small-school test. The medium-school champion of '63 did not qualify this year.

The small-school run will be the lead-off event, at about 11 a.m. Saturday.

Buckeyes Face Iowa; Purdue Meets Illinois

Ohio State Rated 13-Point Favorite; Gophers at Indiana

CHICAGO (AP)—Big Ten co-leaders, Ohio State and Purdue, risk their football fortunes in top games Saturday.

The unbeaten No. 1-ranked Buckeyes invade Iowa, where they have won only once in five trips. Purdue celebrates its homecoming against once-beaten Illinois.

Ohio State and Purdue have 9-0 conference marks. Iowa is 1-2, having lost its last two outings to Purdue and Wisconsin after defeating Indiana Illinois 2-1, bouncing back to defeat Minnesota and UCLA after a 25-0 blasting from the Bucks.

In other games, Northwestern (1-3) is at Michigan (2-1), Minnesota (1-2) at Indiana (1-3) and Michigan State (1-2) at Wisconsin (1-2).

Ohio State is rated a 13-point choice by the oddsmakers despite the upset possibility on the wings of Iowa's Gary Snook. He has passed for 1,285 yards on 95 completions and hit for seven touchdowns in five games. The Hawkeyes also have improved their running attack, mainly behind scabbard Dalton Kumble who is averaging 55 yards a try.

13-Point Choice

Ohio State has one of its most diversified attacks, led by the running and passing of Don Unversier and the power thrusts of fullback Willard Sander. The Buckeyes have yielded 702 yards to aerials and two touchdowns. But they have made 12 interceptions.

Illinois is a three-point choice at Purdue. The Illini may have to depend upon the passing of Fred Custardo more than usual because of the rugged Boilermaker defense against rushing. Fullback Jim Grabowski picked up 171 yards charging at UCLA last week, but he may be stymied trying to go inside against Purdue.

Winning Margin

The Boilermakers have a sound club brightened by a pair of exceptional sophomores, quarterback Bob Griese and pass defender George Catavolos. The latter hijacked two Iowa aerials last week, returning one for a 29-yard touchdown that provided a 19-14 winning margin.

Michigan, whose only loss was 21-20 to Purdue, is a 14-point favorite over injury-ridden Northwestern. The Wildcats have a four-game losing streak and their ace fullback, Steve Murphy, may be ruled out of the game with a pulled leg muscle.

Minnesota, with a long casualty list that includes breakaway runner Bill Crockett, is regarded a 3 to 4-point underdog at Indiana. The Hoosiers also have injury problems to key men.

Wisconsin is another team plagued by casualties and Michigan State is a seven-point selection for the Badger homecoming. The Spartans' traveling squad includes 15 sophomores.

OHIO STATE (AP)—Wisconsin's football Badgers, with three defensive starters ailing and sin's job will be to get its unavailable, are apparently certain of only one thing as they head into Saturday's sellout game against Michigan State—Michigan State can be scored against, five previous opponents have proven that, and Wisconsin's defensive unit running as it did in the 31-21 victory over Iowa.

"If our defense works and we can hold the ball on offense for 40 minutes I believe we'll do all right," Bruhn said.

Report Berra Offered Post With Mets

Yogi Declines Comment on Nature of Work

MONTCLAIR, N.J. (AP)—Golfer Yogi Berra will likely have something to say after a vacation about the latest development in his baseball career.

The ex-manager of the New York Yankees was reached at his home by telephone Thursday night on the eve of his departure for a 10-day golfing holiday at Pinehurst, N.C.

"What about this New York Mets business, Yogi?" he was asked.

A brief pause followed, punctuated by what sounded like the rattle of golf clubs from the Berra end of the line.

"We understand," the questioner continued, "that Mets President George Weiss wants you in his organization, that he considers you 'A man with a great deal of baseball knowledge and popularity.'"

"Yeah, we talked," said Berra. He referred to a meeting Wednesday with Weiss in New York City.

"And what did you say?"

"I said I'm going to think about it."

"Think about what? What did he offer you?"

"Well, I don't have anything to say now."

Berra was equally uncommunicative after he was fired as manager of the Yanks on Oct. 16. The Yanks had won the American League pennant, then lost the World Series to the St. Louis Cardinals in seven games.

Berra was offered a two-year contract as a special field consultant to General Manager Ralph Houk, but no contract was signed.

Coach Ade Dillon's Appleton Terrors, bolstered by sparkling performances from underclassmen, travel to Manitowoc for a Fox River Valley Conference game with the Ships at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Terrors, 2-4 in conference action, will be facing a team that ranks one step higher. Manitowoc is fifth with a 2-3-1 slate.

Junior quarterback Terry Sole and sophomore fullback Jim Kloes played major roles in Appleton's 27-0 victory over Fond du Lac last Saturday.

Kloes, a 195-pound speedster with plenty of power, ripped off 154 yards in 17 attempts against the Cardinals. In his only carries prior to the Fondy game, Kloes had 17 for 58.

Sole hit on eight of 10 passes.

Henry Almost Fully Recovered From Groin Injury

Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY — Fran, this gentleman is Henry Jordan, a Green Bay taxpayer.

"You didn't see much of him back in Green Bay on Oct. 4. He was hurting some in that game and had to leave after the first half."

Fran Tarkenton, the Vikings' scrambling quarterback, really needs no introduction to Mr. Jordan, the Packers' right defensive tackle. ... and nobody has to introduce Henry to the gentleman from Minnesota.

Speed Hampered

Jordan was suffering from a damaging groin pull the early part of the season and it hampered his speed considerably, which is just what the Bay line-men need for cornering and hammering down the skittery Tarkenton.

Tarkenton, in the Vikings' 24-23 victory here, was hotter than that proverbial pistol. He completed 12 of 17 passes for 183 yards and one touchdown, throwing most of the time on

Navy, Notre Dame Clash Saturday; Staubach Returns

Third-Ranked Alabama to Face SEC Rival Mississippi State

BY DICK COUCH

Navy's football season, normally made or broken in the annual windup against Army, goes on the line a month early this year.

The date is Saturday, the target second-ranked Notre Dame — and if that doesn't throw a bit of a Halloween scare into the unbeaten Irish, there's always Roger Staubach.

The Middles, three-time losers, have been pointing toward this one — 38th meeting between the teams with a passion usually reserved for their service academy rival. If any added incentive is needed, the return of All-America quarterback Staubach, recovered from a heel injury, to full-time duty should provide it.

Brilliant Passer

While Navy and Staubach tangle with Notre Dame's vaunted defense, Ohio State tries to protect its No. 1 national ranking against another brilliant passer, Iowa's Gary Snook, in the Big Ten headliner.

Elsewhere, Alabama, Arkansas, Nebraska and Oregon risk perfect records against conference opponents and unbeaten Georgia Tech, major independent power, meets Duke in a key intersectional clash.

Ohio State, seeking a sixth straight victory and the inside track to the Rose Bowl, could be in for a rough hour at Iowa City.

The Buckeyes have been less than overpowering in previous visits and they'll be contending with the nation's third-ranking passer in Snook and No. 1 receiver in Karl Noonan.

Third-ranked Alabama, 6-0, meets Southeastern Conference rival Mississippi State, ninth-ranked Louisiana State, 4-0-1, plays Mississippi and Florida.

No. 10 and 4-1, goes against Auburn in other top SEC games. Arkansas, 6-0, seeks to cement its No. 4 rank and Southwestern Conference lead against Texas A&M. Sixth-ranked Texas, beaten only by the Razorbacks in six starts, has a SWC date with Southern Methodist.

High-scoring Nebraska must get past rugged Big Eight foe Missouri for victory No. 7. The Cornhuskers are No. 5 in the country. Surprising Oregon, also 6-0 and rated seventh, plays Stanford in a Pacific Athletic Conference game.

Georgia Tech, riding a 6-0 streak since quitting the SEC, meets its stiffest test thus far in the unbeaten, once-tied Blue Devils from the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Yellow Jackets are eighth in The Associated Press ratings.

Eastern supremacy could be decided in the clash between Syracuse and Pittsburgh. Villanova, winner of five straight, meets Xavier of Ohio and Army plays host to Iowa State in the East's other major games.

Bowling Green, 6-0, and Miami, Ohio, 4-1-1, collide in a pivotal Mid-America Conference game. Big Ten pairings include Purdue-Illinois, Michigan-Northwestern and Indiana-Minnesota. Kansas-Kansas State and Oklahoma-Colorado are other Big Eight matchups.

Intersectional fare includes Penn State-Maryland, West Virginia-Kentucky and Georgia-North Carolina.

In tonight's only major game, Miami of Florida, still looking for its first victory, meets Detroit.

Cleveland seeks revenge for an earlier loss to Pittsburgh. Baltimore goes after its seventh straight victory and Detroit and Los Angeles battle for the runner-up role in the West in key National Football League games Sunday.

Buffalo, only unbeaten team in the majors, shoots for its eighth straight against Houston and Boston duels New York for runner-up honors in the East in top American Football League games.

A 9-2 record last week gives us courage to go for a few upsets this time. The season score is 47-24-5 — 23-18-3 in the NFL and 19-6-2 in the AFL.

Here goes for the second half: (All games Sunday afternoon unless otherwise indicated):

NFL

Los Angeles 21, Detroit 17 — An upset right off the bat. The Rams and Lions play "get the passer" with their tough defensive lines. They fought to 17-17 tie Sept. 19 but Los Angeles outgained Detroit. Ram rookies pack more scoring punch, with Milt Plum handicapped by injured elbow.

Dallas 17, Chicago 14 — Cowboy defense to handle Bill Wade's passes in another surprise. Dallas coming strong in last two weeks with Don Meredith healthy. Bears battered physically but still playing.

St. Louis 24, New York 17 — Despite loss of Sonny Randle, Cards have mixture of running and passing to top Giants and blitzing defense to harass Y. A. Tittle. Both quarterbacks have interception trouble. Cards will give Giant rookie Ernie Wheelwright prime test. Running of Joe Childress, Willie Crenshaw and John David Crow make Cards tough.

Baltimore 28, San Francisco 10 — One of these days Colts are going to have a letdown. Could be this one but 49ers don't have rush line to hurry Johnny Unitas and John Brodie will get a reception. Colts' well-balanced offense too much.

Green Bay 24, Minnesota 21 — Vikings won their first meeting 24-23 on a missed extra point by Paul Hornung. Loss of Paul Flatley hurts Minnesota's air arm. Vikings can be had with passes. Both clubs can move the ball on the ground. A real tough one.

Cleveland 24, Pittsburgh 21 — This could be a killer. Steelers made 353 yards on the ground with John Henry Johnson and Clarence Peaks in winning first meeting 23-7. Conservative Brown pass rush gives Ed Brown plenty of time. But Jim Brown is overdue for a big one, especially against a club that stopped him cold earlier. Every-body runs against Steelers — except Browns.

Vike Soccer Club to Meet Wisconsin Lawrence Booters Try to Extend 2-Game Streak

The Lawrence University Soccer Club takes on the University of Wisconsin here at 10 a.m. Saturday in its sixth match of the current season.

The Lawrence booters have won two and dropped three of their five previous matches, but own a 2-match winning streak. After losing to Grinnell, 4-1; to Carleton, 3-2, and Lake Forest, 5-1, Lawrence swept two straight from Ripon, 4-2 and 3-2.

"Soccer is not an intercollegiate sport at Lawrence," notes Art Denney, Supervisor of Physical Education and Recreation at Lawrence. "In fact, it is an intercollegiate sport at very few midwestern colleges and universities. We play on a club basis. Our soccer players pay for their own meals, and so on, on the road, although we do arrange for their transportation."

"We began a soccer club at Lawrence two years ago because we have a lot of foreign students here to whom soccer is a national sport. Further, a lot of our students from the east also played soccer in high school."

40 Players Out

Denney added, "We had about 15 men turn out for our first season, while we have about 40 young men in this year's club, coached by Lt. Col. Carroll Newstrom of the University R.O.T.C." Denney added that two of the outstanding players on the club were foreign students, James Ajene of Nigeria and Luke Ndinya of Kenya.

"It's an awfully tough game to play," continued Denney, adding that the size of a soccer field exceeds that of a football field in both length and width. "Those players have to go full speed on that field for 88 minutes and they do. It is an exciting, fast, naugh's Barbers dropped the action-filled, interesting sport. I first game to Randy's Laundromat, then bounced back for two wins to tie for second with Bowling Bar, which beat Badger Northland twice before losing the final. The two have 5-1 records.

Denney expressed doubt about soccer becoming an intercollegiate sport at Lawrence, at least

Ripon Frosh Triumph, 14-6, Over Lawrence

Hering Paces Win; McKee Scores Touchdown

RIPON — Ripon College's freshman gridirers trimmed the Lawrence University frosh here Thursday, 14-6, with the help of five Redmen interceptions.

Ripon quarterback Robin Hering passed to Robert Pelligrino for 34 yards and a Redmen score in the first period. The 'Ripon defense had three interceptions of Viking aerials in the first half to kill any possible Lawrence threat.

Ripon capped a 55-yard march in the third period with a 17-yard scoring toss from Hering to Jim Clark. Hering passed to Mike Zuehlke for the 2-point conversion and a 14-0 edge.

Former Appleton Terror quarterback Chuck McKee ripped off a 90-yard touchdown romp shortly after the second Ripon score only to have the play called back on a clipping penalty.

The Vikings finally hit the scoreboard in the fourth period. Gary Hietpas pounced on a Ripon fumble on the Viking 38. The Vikes proceeded downfield with Steve Figi and Chuck McKee leading the way. Figi capped the drive with a 14-yard scoring pass to McKee. The pass for the 2-point failed.

The Vikes threw 16 passes and completed five. Ripon hit the nine of 21 for 155 yards. The Redmen netted 225 yards, compared to 173 for Lawrence.

Norma Redlin Hits 590 Pin Threesome

Leads Bent Sabre Circuit; Pat Lutz Posts 555 Set

Norma Redlin uncorked lines-light action in the Women's League at Hahn's Lanes. Elaine Krueger garnered the runnerup honors with a 540 set, including a 194 single.

Other honor scores were Gladys Klein, 202 and 521; Eileen McCarey, 518; Ruth Sullivan, 193 and 515; Sally Wegner, 509; Elaine Zempel, 190 and 506; Eunice Dietzen, 501 and Lorna Pekarske, 500. North Star Oil (23-4) holds a 3-game lead over Stop & Shop.

Betty Christensen's 524 trio and Ann Court's 206 single shared the honors in the Navy League at Hahn's.

Other honor scores were Grace Hansel, 190 and 513; Dee Kohl, 201 and 507; Donna Kasube, 505 and Joan Reitzner, 196. Hansel Iron and Louie's Supper Club (17-7) hold a 1-game lead over Appleton Trophy.

Van Gorden Leads Nation in Total Offense

Gerry Gendron 14th Among Small College Receivers

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Quarterback Jim Van Gorden of Wisconsin's Eau Claire State is the total offensive leader among the nation's small college football players, according to figures supplied Thursday by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Van Gorden, who has directed Eau Claire to five victories in seven starts and first place in the Wisconsin State College Conference, has gained 1,663 yards for an average of 237.6 yards a game. He's passed or run with the ball 275 times.

Van Gorden is third among the passers, completing 95 of 204 attempts for 1,396 yards, an average of 199.4 a game. He's tossed for six touchdowns.

The Eau Claire pass attack ranks second among NAIA schools, with 99 completions on 221 attempts for 1,500 yards. Eau Claire's Gerry Gendron is 14th among pass receivers with 33 catches for 486 yards and one touchdown.

Eau Claire's Ray Cheyka and Van Gorden are tied with eight others for 13th in individual scoring with 48 points on eight touchdowns.

Chuter, Hawk Gridders Will Duel Saturday

ing this season's honors), and his over-all winning percentage is .607 (60-39-2).

Clark, who will be shooting to make it 4-for-4 in football titles, has compiled a 6-year grid coaching average of .898 (44-5-1). Both coaches appear convinced that this will be a different type of game than the previous three in the series which Xavier won by top-heavy margins. Fitzpatrick said, "We're capable of doing it, and the boys are not going into the game with the outlook they have had for the last several years. We used to worry about how high they would run up the score, but this time it is different."

Clark commented, "I think it's a toss-up. I think they (the Chuters) are good, and I have nothing but respect for them. Our kids, too, are tough—they're different from what they were at the beginning of the season."

The Chuters have come a long way since their 6-8 record of '62 and 3-5 of 1963. They lead the FVCC in total defense (130.3 yards per game), have yielded the second fewest points (6.7 per game) and rank third in total offense (223-yard average) and in scoring (17.8 points per game).

Xavier's offense, which was a whisper for the first one-third of the season (12 points in three games) has turned into a deafening roar. Starting with their 19-7 win over Premontré (which was the turning point of the season), the Hawks have skyrocketed their scoring total with each game: 19, 20, 31, 39, and 40.

Xavier's offense average for the last five games is 29.8, and its defensive average 5.4.

Over-all, Xavier ranks first in FVCC scoring (24.8), first in total offense (258.7 yards per game) and second in total defense (151.5 yard average) and has yielded the fewest points (5.7 average).

Deadly Attack

The St. John aerial attack, directed by quarterback Mike Weyenberg, the 1963 all-conference quarterback, has been deadly. Weyenberg, the leading passer in the league has completed 35 of 74 attempts for 527 yards and has had only one intercepted. Weyenberg, and such receivers as Bruce Hammen and Dave Van Vreede, will put the greatest pressure on the Hawks' aerial defense since the season opener. In that one, Milwaukee Jordan produced four touchdown passes for a 26-12 victory.

In league play, though, Xavier has pulled itself together and has permitted the lowest completion percentage in the conference—29 per cent. Xavier is tied for second in interceptions, with eight, behind St. John, which has picked off 11 passes—nine in the last three games.

St. John has a dangerous ground attack to go along with its passing. In fact, the Chuters rushed so effectively against Pennings in last Friday's crucial game that they took to the air-lanes only infrequently.

St. John starters are scheduled to be Hammen and Van Vreede, at ends; Jay Van Thiel and Tom Pfeffer, tackles; Joe Schaefer and Dennis Driessen, guards; Mike Cook, center; Weyenberg, QB; Gary Romanesko and Dan Gloudemans, half-backs; and Tim Wegand, full-back.

Romanesko is the leading St. John rusher, with 293 total yards and a 4.5-yard average. Hammen is the Chuters' scoring leader, with 36 points; and Gloudemans has tallied 24. Hammen ranks third in FVCC pass receiving yardage—156, on 12 catches.

7-Yard Average

Paul Rechner, Xavier field general, has at his command three running backs who are averaging better than five yards a carry. The explosive averages are 7 yards for Gary Gunderson, whose 429-yard total is second in the league to Premontré's Tom Vandembush; 5.5 for Paul Sprinzer; and 5.8 for Larry Van Dyke.

Gunderson has spurred for eight touchdowns to top the FVCC in scoring, with 48 points. Springer has scored four TD's in conference play, while five other Hawks (Van Dyke, Rechner, Colin Smit, Tom Peotter and Mike Heideman) have tallied twice apiece.

Rechner has completed 13 of 29 passes for 230 yards and has had three interceptions. Steve Schmieder, his understudy, has hit on nine of 11 for 118 yards.

Expected to start for Xavier will be Heideman and Smith, at ends; Rex Kessler and Mike Moder, tackles; Jack Herb and Bill Secour, guards; Tim Wenzel, center; and Rechner, Gunderson, Springer and Van Dyke in the backfield.

Seniors playing their final grid game for St. John are Hammen, Van Vreede, Van Thiel, Pfeffer, Driessen, Cook, Weyenberg, Gloudemans, Tom Huting, Tom Olson, Randy Schmieder, Dennis Diedrick, Ed Van Handel and Al Liebergen.

Hawks playing their final prep football game are Moder, Kessler, Peotter, Springer, Gunderson, Secour, Pete Vandenberg and John Ruppel.

Xavier's Van Dyke suffered a broken bone in his nose during Thursday's practice but is expected to play Saturday. The Chuters' Van Vreede has a toe injury and Wegand a charley horse, but both are also expected to be ready.

Michigan State has come up with new offensive punch and the Spartans exhibited it last week in defeating Northwestern 24-6, their second triumph in five starts.

In the last two games Michigan State's left halfback, Dick Gordon, has averaged almost 100 yards rushing, while quarter-back Steve Juday has passed for five touchdowns and completed 40 of 73 aerials.

"Juday throws real well and they also have an outstanding receiver who has gained stature every week," Bruhn noted.

He referred to sophomore Gene Washington, a 6-foot-2 former Texas prep high and low hurdles champion. Washington has caught 16 passes for 251 yards, four touchdowns and a 15.6 average.

"Their defense is strictly reckless abandon," Bruhn said. "It's the quickness they have going for them. Some of those boys," and Bruhn mentioned Capt. Charlie Migvanka, Don Japinga and Lou Bobich, "can't be counted out even when they're blocked out."

Neenah	5	1	0
Roosevelt	4	2	0
Kaukauna	2	4	0
Menasha	2	4	0
Kimberly	1	4	1
Wilson	0	5	1

Madison Junior High School's football team racked up its first Fox Valley Frosh league championship with a perfect (6-0) slate with a 20-0 victory over Wilson in the season finale Thursday.

Madison, then known as McKinley, won the title in 1945.

Kimberly surprised Kaukauna, 13-0 and Neenah beat Menasha, 26-6 in other season-ending games.

Bob Reinke opened the scoring on a 5-yard run for Coach Sherwin Fuerbringer's champions. Ron Balke flopped on a Wilson fumble in the third period in the Wilson end zone for a 12-0 lead. Jim Hesler converted to make it 13-0.

Midway through the fourth period Hesler romped 10 yards for the final Madison TD. Hesler again converted for the 20-0 verdict.

Hesler led the defense with two interceptions. Bill Stroess, Tony Goehler and Bill Stroess intercepted one Wilson aerial apiece. Fumbles were recovered by Stroess, Reinke, Balke and Steve Utschig.

Kimberly took command early, moving 65 yards in six plays for a 6-0 lead. Quarterback Bill Kroner capped the drive with a 3-yard sneak for the score.

The final play of the first period saw Tom Lamers intercept a Kaukauna pass and return it to the yearling Ghosts' 40. John Vander Velden romped the 40 yards for the score on the first play. Vander Velden booted the conversion for the 13-0 margin.

the need is great!

St. Elizabeth Hospital, with 64 years of dedicated service to the Fox Cities area behind it, has embarked upon an ambitious building program to provide the people of this community with the best medical care possible.

Medical science is moving forward at such an overwhelming pace it is almost impossible to keep up with it, to say nothing of creating the buildings and acquiring the equipment to best utilize the ever-growing body of knowledge in the field of health.

St. Elizabeth Hospital answered the community's need in 1900, again in the 1920s and now it is ready once more to provide the kind of medical care facilities you deserve. The existing facilities have served us well. But what is the best today will not necessarily be the best tomorrow. In health matters, we cannot afford second best.

Those of us whose first responsibility is to get you well and keep you well know what kind of a diagnostic and treatment center is being planned for the new St. Elizabeth Hospital. We stand behind it 100 per cent. It will make the Fox Cities area truly a modern medical center, second to none in this part of the state.

It will take money — lots of it. Another $2,000,000 is needed. When you are asked, do your share. What better investment can you make than giving you and your children every chance to get well?

If you have any question about the need, just ask your doctor.

Reds Accused of Slipping Arms to Students, Miners

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Bolivia broke relations with Communist Czechoslovakia Thursday night, accusing it of inciting rebellion after new skirmishes in the capital killed at least three persons and wounded 23.

The government accused the Czechoslovak Embassy of slipping arms to student and tin miner rebels who have staged uprisings in wide areas of Bolivia.

Quiet was restored in La Paz today and government troops were in firm control of Oruro, a city proclaimed the capital of rebellion by miners and students opposed to President Paz Estenssoro. Oruro is 143 miles south of La Paz.

Fighting Troops
But students and miners last were reported fighting troops 18 miles from Oruro.

Rebel miners still were in control of most of the tin mines in that area. Rebel outbreaks also were reported at Cochabamba, 310 miles southwest of La Paz.

Paz in a radio speech Thursday night blamed Communists for the uprising in the tin mining centers and declared he would resist demands of his foes that he resign.

Possibly 50 persons have been killed in the various clashes throughout the country in the past few days.

The fighting in La Paz raged for three hours Thursday night between rebel university students and government forces.

President's Word Of Disapproval Appears as Cause

NEW YORK (AP) — Talk of a steel price rise died down today, apparently spiced by disapproving word from President Johnson.

Given them enduring pause — The Johnson point that steel profits, anemic two years ago, now are swelling rapidly was underscored Thursday when Bethlehem Steel Corp., the No. 2 producer reported that July-September earnings had jumped 105 per cent from a year earlier, rising to $36.3 million or 76 cents a common share.

Profits Climbing
For the first nine months of this year profits climbed 58 per cent to $104,928,160, a seven-year high for such a period and more than the company earned in all of 1963.

Even so, Edmund F. Martin, Bethlehem chairman, said the nine-month margin—a 6.3 per cent return on sales and 7.8 per cent on invested capital—wasn't good enough.

This was roughly what several other steel company executives have been saying.

Plans Naming Vien Deputy And Minister of Defense

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Tran Van Huong, former mayor of Saigon, was named today to succeed Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh as premier despite ill health which hampered his work as mayor.

Huong, 60, said he planned to name Dr. Nguyen Luu Vien, Khanh's uncle, as deputy premier and defense minister. His other Cabinet choices were not certain.

Huong's appointment by the new chief of state, Phan Khanh Sui, must be confirmed by the 16-member high national council responsible for setting up a new government.

Strong Opposition
Because of Khanh's relationship to Vien, there could be strong opposition to Vien's being named defense minister. In that post he will have a seat on the powerful four-man national security council, and Khanh is expected to fill one of the other seats as chief of the armed forces.

Vien was interior minister in Khanh's last Cabinet.

"I'm not sure whether I should be congratulated or offered condolences," Huong said. "But this is a critical period in Vietnamese history, and I have accepted this sacrifice for my nation as a matter of conscience."

High School Teacher
A high school teacher, Huong was mayor of Saigon in 1954-55 under the late President Ngo Dinh Diem. He attracted attention by riding to work on a bicycle instead of using a government limousine.

German Gates Open Second Time in 3 Years

6,000 West Berliners Pass Through Wall Within Hours

BERLIN (AP) — Thousands of happy West Berliners streamed into the Soviet sector today to visit relatives after the Communists opened the Berlin wall for the second time in three years.

A few hours after Red guards raised the candy-striped steel barriers and unlocked the steel

gates, the official East German news agency reported that 6,000 West Berliners had crossed over.

This was far more than expected. On the first day of last year's visiting period, the first the Reds had allowed since they built their wall in August 1961, only about 4,000 crossed all day.

The wall will remain open to persons with the necessary passes until Nov. 12 — over the All Saints' holiday. It is the first of four visiting periods within the next 12 months.

Wait in Line
At the Oberbaumbruecke checkpoint, the first crossers began waiting in line shortly after 5 a.m. It was a damp morning with temperatures just a few degrees above freezing.

Most of those crossing over were older people since today is a working day. Only persons working for government offices were given the day off.

The visitors carried big shopping bags filled mostly with such items as butter, coffee, cocoa and fresh fruit. They are

Krebiozen Users Plea To Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sit-in group of Krebiozen drug users who "do not believe our government will abandon us and let us die" sent a personal plea today to President Johnson.

The 17 keeping a vigil in the outer office of Anthony J. Celebrezze, secretary of health, education and welfare, want the President to lift the federal ban on interstate shipment of the controversial drug which the government has ruled is worthless against cancer.

Before dawn broke over the capital, members of the Citizens Committee for Cancer Survivors on Krebiozen drew up a telegram to Johnson.

It said "We appeal to you to lift (the) ban for those patients now using Krebiozen by executive authority exercisable in disaster affecting American lives."

"Your intervention would be received by our people and the world as a magnificent act of humanitarianism."

Through the low night, some of the sicker patients in the group slept on mattresses just outside Celebrezze's office.

Red China May Attend, but It's Unlikely Split Will be Healed

A world Communist meeting mand for muffled communism's internal warfare.

But any attempt to heal the split party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev in the global revolutionary movement seems headed for — seem anxious to mute the failure.

The new Soviet regime in all and its allies. But if they are likelihood will be unwilling and going to get anywhere, they unable to pay Peking's high policy toward the United States price for peace.

Nikita Khrushchev's scalp It is doubtful the new regime was only the first installment wants to alarm the Soviet people with a prospect of a turn backward toward Stalinism. If does not want to alarm the European Communist satellites, which have had a faint taste of independence. It does not want to alarm West European Communists, whose only prospects for gains lie in lulling the opposition.

Living Standard
Khrushchev's successors claim to support his policies of peaceful coexistence and higher living standards at home. At the same time they claim to stand for restoring world Communist unity.

Brezhnev and Kosygin cannot have all these things. The best they can hope for is a lull in the wordy battle with Peking. A lull is in effect now. Since Khrushchev's fall the Soviet press and the Red Chinese have been silent about differences with Moscow. But the aloof Chinese

Tension Eases In N. Rhodesia

Prime Minister Retreats From Self-Rule Threat

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP) — The crisis over Rhodesia eased today after Prime Minister Ian Smith's retreat from his threat to proclaim independence for the white-ruled East African territory.

Bowing to a stiff warning from Britain's Labor government, Smith said in a television interview Thursday: "The British government's moves of the past week have upset everything and I can see no prospect of independence by Christmas as I had hoped."

Smith also told the Rhodesian Parliament he would not regard the expected "yes" vote in a referendum next Thursday as a mandate for a unilateral declaration of independence from Britain.

Motion Approved
Parliament approved Smith's motion "that the House takes note of the attitude of the British government toward the independence issue and rejects any policy based on the result of the referendum." It then adjourned until Feb. 23.

But Smith remained adamant in his opposition to British demands for a constitution assuring ultimate control of Rhodesia law and the post of military governor.

CAIRO (AP) — Sudan got a new civilian government today, but President Ibrahim Abboud remained chief of state and his power appeared only slightly diminished.

A communique broadcast by Omuduman Radio said Abboud would exercise "all constitutional powers" but with the "approval of the Cabinet."

Elkhatem Khalifa was named premier and head of a 15-man Cabinet. In a broadcast he announced the abolition of martial law and the post of military governor.

President Unveils New Slogan Today

DETROIT (AP) — President Johnson, making a final campaign tour of the Midwest, came up with a new slogan today.

"The vote you cast will be your own and the world you save will be your own."

Johnson unveiled this phrase in a speech prepared for an airport rally in Detroit. It was his latest move in a week-long effort to picture himself as the candidate best equipped to preserve peace.

The President, even while emphasizing questions of peace and war in every speech, still seeks opportunities to contrast his views with those of Republican rival Barry Goldwater.

He did this anew Thursday night in Philadelphia, taking issue with Goldwater on the role of clergymen in public affairs.

Addressing a Democratic dinner, Johnson added to his text a challenge to a Goldwater statement questioning the propriety of political endorsements by members of the clergy.

The President said: "I hope the day will never come when any man, for any cause, will try to keep religion out of our national decisions on who shall lead us or the direction we shall go."

UNICEF Drive Plans Complete

KAUKAUNA—Children from schools of the community will visit homes from 5 to 6:15 p.m. Saturday, dressed in costume and wearing identification bands to collect money for UNICEF.

Groups of third and fourth graders, accompanied by an older student, will be assigned districts and make collections after which they will reassemble at respective schools for a lunch. The entire program is designed to be completed in time to permit children to participate in recreation department sponsored Halloween activities.

This is the first year an organized UNICEF campaign has been held. If weather is too bad, the collection will be postponed to Sunday night. Students assigned to cover areas distant from the school will be transported to the site and picked up again at the conclusion of the effort.

Teachers in the schools will instruct children on procedure for the drive. Mrs. Louis Van- evenhoven is southside chair- man while Mrs. Orry Schmalz is in charge of the northside ef- fort assisted by Mrs. Ben Ver- belen, Mrs. George Kroes, Mrs. Frank Muthig and Mrs. John Jansen.

'Pillow Talk' Cast Chosen at Appleton High

Open Trials Lasting Several Days Yield Players for Comedy

The cast for "Pillow Talk," the first all-school dramatic presentation this year at Appleton High School, has been selected.

The play, a modern situation comedy, will be presented twice Dec. 16 and 17.

Try-outs, which were open to any member of the AHS student body, were held for several days before selections were made by Lee Schoeni, director.

Lynn Doerfler will play the female lead of Jan Morrow and Niel Slipce will play the male lead of Brad Allen. Garry Bruch will play the supporting lead of Jonathan Forbes.

Other cast selections are Sandra Tarala, Bruce Witter, Paula Lettau, Petter Otto, Susan Kagan, Denise Lipske, and Lynn Hanson.

Other Cast

The speaking cast also includes Jean Sitterson, Gail Freyberg, Larry Lundeen, Jennifer Rathbun, Jane Otto, Francis Straubel, Greg Joseph, Mary Evans, Charlene Beck, Kathleen

Seeding, Seating Occupy Fall Spotlight at Lawrence

Seeding and seating are occupying the spotlight this fall at Lawrence University.

Green grass and blue seats are appearing in multiples of thousands.

A total of 6,400 blue seats are being installed at various points, both indoors and out, on the campus. Two hundred are the theater-type seats in the lecture room of the newly dedicated Casper E. Youngchild Hall of Science. About 1,200 are now being placed in time for the premiere of the building's remodeling Monday.

On that day the Israel Youth Symphony will open the 1964-65 Lawrence Community Artist Series. Although certain backstage and teaching areas will not be completed by that date, it is expected that the concert area will be usable.

Athletic Bowl

Across the river in the new Lawrence athletic bowl, which will not be used until September, 1965, a total of 5,000 plastic stadium seats are being fastened to the cement risers. The Lawrence blue of the seats will provide an unexpected dash of color in the landscape at the south end of the College Avenue bridge.

As far as the seeding goes, it is more accurately called sodding. Constant rains in September made it impossible to seed the lawn around Youngchild Hall and to prepare the new football field. About 8,000 square yards of sod have been trucked in from northern Wisconsin and laid in those two areas.

The lawn of Youngchild Hall suddenly appeared fully grown in three days before the dedication of the building, while the football field is now in its final stages. The field has required 6,500 square yards, the Youngchild lawn 1,300.

Waupaca County Budget For 1965 Drops $27,085

$3.7 Million Plan Goes to Board For Final Approval; Figure Would Result in Tax Rate 96 Cents Lower

WAUPACA—A 1965 Waupaca County budget totaling $3,692,622 and calling for a $951,226 tax levy—a drop of $27,085—will be presented to the county board when it opens its annual five-day session Nov. 6.

The new levy would mean a tax rate reduction from $6.71 last year to $5.75 this year—a drop of 96 cents per $1,000 of equalized valuation. This would be the second cut in two years, according to County Clerk Robert Backer.

The budget will be presented to the board Nov. 6 and is scheduled for adoption in its final form Nov. 16.

Along with the reduction of $27,085 in expenditures from last year's $3,741,222, a hike in revenues other than property tax is expected to be increased by $15,269 to $2,716,132. Backer said a continual increase in the valuation of the county also has contributed to the levy cut.

Highway Budget
The county highway department has submitted the largest single request, amounting to $1,332,300. Of that figure, $193,000 is for expenditures for outlay, leaving $1,139,300 for other highway department use. The $1,139,300 requested is a cut of $184,308 from the $1,323,608 spent last year. The expenditures for outlay also have been reduced this year from $209,000 to $193,000.

The county highway department also will take in the bulk of revenues other than taxes. Its share of revenues has been estimated at $1,489,300, more than half the total $2,716,132 in revenue that will be received by the county. This does not include the tax levy.

Of the $951,226 that will be raised from the tax levy, $443,000 will be for highway department use.

Second highest of the proposed list of expenditures is charities and corrections, including welfare services. This figure $1,214,524, also cut $71,596 from the nine-month actual and three-month estimate of $1,258,585 spent in 1964.

$147,906 for Government
A total of $147,906 is being requested for general government, a drop of nearly $4,000 from the $150,850 asked last year.

An increase of $4,509 is shown for protection of persons and property which includes the sheriff's department. Last year $94,795 was spent compared to $99,304 for the upcoming year.

A cut of $5,813 from $126,598 to $117,785 is shown in the estimated spending for education and recreation. The elimination of spending for the services of a county superintendent of schools is one of the contributing factors in the reduction of education and recreation spending.

Increased requests from the state for the support of tubercular institutions has boosted the outlay for health $14,787 from $20,320 last year to $35,107 which is being allocated in the proposed 1965 budget.

Interest Costs
Because interest costs on loans are expected to be less during the coming year, $1,350 will be cut from the $50,825 indebtedness expenditures, bringing the new estimate to $49,475.

Miscellaneous spending, including group insurance retirement fund and social security for county employees, has been jumped $5,664. Last year $33,517 was asked compared to $38,181 this year. Backer contributed this increase to a boost in the amount of insurance and other fringe benefits that are paid to county employees.

The 1965 budget summary lists outstanding indebtedness as of Dec. 31, 1964 as $500,000 of which $160,000 is in outstanding bridge bonds and a $140,000 debt on the county hospital at Wausau.

Olson Claims Reynolds Using School Plans to Political Advantage

Knowles, Byrnes, Lorge Give GOP Pep Talks to Motorcade Followers

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

SEYMOUR—Outagamie County Republicans got "pep talks" from three of their party leaders here Thursday noon.

In the midst of the county party's motorcade which went through Greenville, Hortonville, New London, Shiocton, Black Creek, Seymour, Kaukauna, Little Chute, Combined Locks, here holding hands with each other, Get out and meet the group stopped off here at the Hotel Seymour for a noon lunch.

Knowles, Byrnes, Lorge gave GOP pep talks to motorcade followers. Olson made a flat prediction to the luncheon crowd of about 125 people.

"I predict Warren Knowles will win Tuesday's election by 30,000 votes," Lorge said. He cautioned the GOP group, "You can't win votes by sitting sure all the older people in your block get to the polls to vote next Tuesday. We need every vote we can get because some of these contests may be decided by just a few votes."

Knowles echoed Lorge's sentiments. "All the polls you read about come from the Eastern establishment and they aren't accurate about Sen. Goldwater's chances."

"With all of you doing the job you're capable of doing," Knowles said, "we can win Wisconsin's 12 electoral votes for Barry Goldwater, plus a complete slate of Republican state officers, Senate candidate William Renk, congressional candidate Rep. John Byrnes, and all the courthouse candidates."

Legion Team Is Honored
CLINTONVILLE—The championship American Legion baseball team and its coach and manager were cited in a special recognition banquet here Wednesday.

Trophies for winning district, league and Region three tournaments were given the team by Robert Beltrone, legion baseball commissioner of Appleton. Dan Neumeier became the first legion player to be awarded the commander's trophy, presented by Tilleson-Strehlow-Klitz. Post Commander Les Osterlof. Neumeier was named most improved player.

Vaughn James was presented a trophy as most valuable player. He was voted the honor in balloting among the team.

Coach Don Jirschele, Manager Guy Fandrey and team members and their parents were introduced.

3rd Anniversary for New Church St. Mary Church Marks 75th Year at Marion
MARION — The 75th anniversary of St. Mary Catholic Church's founding and the third anniversary of the dedication of the new church will be observed Sunday. The Rev. James Jacobs is pastor.

The Rev. Arthur N. Belle, pastor of St. Rose Catholic Church in Clintonville, with missions in Bear Creek and Tigerton, aided seven original families to organize the congregation.

On Sept. 1, 1887, the land was purchased on which the first church was built. The first mass was offered by the Rev. Belle during the summer of 1888. He administered the sacraments and catechetical instructions in homes of parishioners.

Completed in 1888
The first church was completed during the summer of 1888. The bell, which was purchased a decade later, is still in use. The parish was incorporated on Oct. 12, 1912, and three years later obtained a cemetery plot.

The Marion church became a mission of St. Anthony Church in Tigerton in 1917. It remained in that status until gaining full parish status Sept. 10, 1956.

Later that year the parish purchased the George Hehner home for a rectory.

PSC Approves Swamp Dike in Brown County

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The state Public Service Commission has modified, and tentatively approved, a plan for constructing a long dike in swamp lands adjacent to Duck Creek in the village of Howard, Brown County, for development of a muskrat farm.

The plan was filed by Milton J. Barlament of route 4, Green Bay, who owns the lands once granted by the United States government to the state, and sold by the state many years ago.

Barlament proposed to build a dike near the bank of Duck Creek, enclosing most of his property.

The commission specified, however, that he must modify the plan to exclude a portion of the dike which was designed to run beyond the government meander line at the east end of the project, and which would otherwise enclose an area between that line and the open water of Green Bay.

The lake bed underlying such water is held in trust by the state for public use, the commission noted.

The agency approved the dike on condition that it be built with the meander line, to avoid obstruction of navigation and the reduction of the effective flood flow capacity of the stream.

Fire Destroys Rural Home
NEW LONDON — Fire destroyed the Lyle Goldorf home, route 3, New London late Thursday.

The New London Fire Department was called to the fire at 10:30 p.m. by Doug Meschke, a neighbor of the Goldorfs.

When the firemen arrived they found the dwelling engulfed in flames and the east corner of the building burned out.

No trace of the Goldorf family could be found at the fire scene, and at first it was feared they had been trapped in the house and burned.

Found Mother, Daughter
Searching New London policemen Ray Oberstadt and Robert Webb found Mrs. Goldorf and her daughter, Marsha, at the Fred Dahms home in New London at 11:30 p.m.

Firemen pushed the remaining timbers of what had been a two-story home into the cellar when they left at 1:30 a.m. The timbers were still burning, but neighbors kept watch on the fire the rest of the night.

James Sullivan, fire department captain, said the building was a total loss and the fire's origin was unknown.

Mrs. Goldorf said the building was partially covered by insurance.

Two Children Injured in Crash Near Clintonville
CLINTONVILLE — Two children were injured when an auto driven by their mother went into a ditch, hit a telephone pole and stopped in a field on U.S. 45 south of here Thursday afternoon.

Taken to Clintonville Memorial Hospital were Peggy Winters, 6, with a head cut, and her brother, Wayne, 2, treated for a bump on the head.

Their mother, Mrs. Elsie L. Winters, 38, Ogdensburg, said she veered her auto from the road to avoid hitting a dog. Her auto was demolished.

40 Per Cent of County Total

Winnebago's September DHIA Test Had Increase of 263 Cows

The Winnebago County Dairy Herd Improvement Association (DHIA) for September shows 11,730 cows were tested for milk and butterfat production. This was an increase of 263 cows over the August report.

County Agent Vernon Peroutky estimates that this would be about 40 per cent of the dairy cattle being milked for the month. Normally, cows milk about nine to 10 months and then go into a rest period of approximately two months before giving birth to a calf and starting a new lactation period.

The highest producing herds in the DHIA report with one exception were Holsteins. The top milk and butterfat producing herd was that of Everett Lewis, Omro, with a registered and grade herd. Forty cows are in the program but nine were not milking on test day. The average for the 44 was 1,325 pounds of milk and 49 pounds of butterfat. Second high was the registered and grade herd of Raymond Koepp, Fremont, 42 cows, 10 not milking, 1,232 pounds milk and 46 pounds fat.

Registered Purebreds
Registered purebreds in the high group, their milk and butterfat poundage, were owned by O. G. McSchooler, 38 cows, three not milking, 1,204 milk, 46 fat; Winnebago State Farm, the largest herd reported with 117 head, 12 not milking, 1,114 milk, 45 fat; John Bartlett, 25 head, four not milking, 1,228 milk, 44 fat; George Brennand, 46 head, four not milking, 1,047 milk, 41 fat and Earl Hughes, 30 head, six not milking, 1,109 milk, 40 fat.

Other registered and grade herds in the high group were Arthur and Andrew Olson, 23 cows, five not milking, 1,115 milk, 43 fat; Mrs. James Eagon, 34 cows, five not milking, 1,225 milk, 42 fat; Edward Buehring, 24 cows, five not milking, 1,193 milk, 42 fat and George Kafer, 41 head, 10 not milking, 1,110 milk and 40 fat.

Guernseys, too, figured in the high herd report with registered Guernseys and grade Holsteins in the 36-cow herd of Floyd Nelson, four not milking, with 900 pounds of milk and 40 fat as a per cow average.

High Cows
Pansiewood Farms, Inc., Oshkosh, a registered Holstein, Lucinda, was a high milk and fat producer with 2,493 pounds of milk and 115 pounds of butter-

Cheryll Mueller Is State Honey Queen

Seymour Girl Outagamie's First to Win

BY PAT DUFFEY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

SEYMOUR — Almost as an afterthought came Outagamie County's claim to being the home of the state honey queen.

Pretty Cheryll Mueller, Seymour, who received her crown in Madison last week from the Wisconsin Bee Keepers Association, came close to not entering the county contest which earned her the right to Madison competition.

She became a late entry in the Outagamie event after Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knox, Neenah, producers of Lakeshore Honey, decided to sponsor her. Knox keeps bees on the Hilmer Mueller farm and the Muellers are Cheryll's grandparents.

Coronation came on the eve of National Honey Week, which is currently being observed.

The 1965 state queen will have a year to sharpen her knowledge of bee keeping and honey in preparation for the week-long national contest in Nashville, Tenn., in 1966. Wisconsin has never won the coveted national title.

Awards are commonplace by now to the 17-year-old Seymour Community High School Senior.

Brillion FFA to Sponsor Plowing Contest Saturday

BRILLION — A plowing contest sponsored by the high school Future Farmers of America Chapter will be held on the Ezra Keuer farm on U. S. 10 near Forest Junction at 9 a.m. Saturday.

On a basis of 100 total points boys will be judged on safety, 30 points; furrow conformation, 25 points; quality of tilled surface, 15 points straightness of furrow, five points trash coverage, 10 points; land ends, 10 points, and alertness, 5 points.

Judging the contest will be Ed Rusch, Forest Junction; Gaylord Unbehaun, superintendent of the Brillion Public Schools and a former agriculture teacher; William Urban, high school vocational agriculture instructor and Peter Konyha, Brillion Iron Works representative.

Championship and runner-up trophies will be awarded.

Cheryll Mueller of Seymour capped seven years of work in 4-H when she was crowned Wisconsin Honey Queen this week. She had earlier won the Outagamie County contest. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Stop! Switch calves to Land O'Lakes Calf Milk Replacer and sell every drop of your milk!

Market every drop of milk after colostrum! Switch calves to Land O'Lakes Calf Milk Replacer, a milk product with 10% added fat. Relieve it for less than $2 per cwt. Difference between that and what you get for milk is profit!

Research proved young calves cannot digest cereals efficiently. Two-week-old calves on Calf Milk Replacer had gained weight five times faster on one-fifth as much feed (per pound of gain) as calves fed a 50% cereal/50% milk product. At five weeks, the same calves had gained twice as fast on half the feed.

Ask your Land O'Lakes dealer about it. You can rely on Land O'Lakes to help you sell every drop of your milk after colostrum and raise strong, healthy calves for less!

Calumet Helps Sponsor 4-H Tour Featuring Home Furnishings

CHILTON — The Calumet, Manitowoc and Kewaunee county home economics departments are sponsoring a joint tour of the convention the girls were introduced and told to give an oral biographical sketch of themselves. Individual private interviews followed.

The Thursday evening banquet climaxed the state bee keepers convention. Among guests were the 1964 state honey queen, Carolyn Hahn of Ixonia, Wis., who will compete in the national contest in Georgia in January.

Cheryll was crowned by Alice in Dairyland, Beth Bartosh and given a dozen roses—yellow ones to signify honey.

The new queen plans to pursue college training at Wisconsin State University - Stevens Point in the foods and nutrition area.

Duties of the new queen have not been outlined yet, but so far include a promotion session at the state fair next year and other area public address and lectures on uses of honey.

Part of her college training may be interrupted temporarily as she spreads the "honey" word throughout the state.

4-H members and leaders Nov. 5 in Manitowoc.

Theme of the tour will be home furnishings and will feature accessories, place settings, draperies, curtains and furniture.

Farm Records Vital to Census of Agriculture

All farmers in the county will need this year's business records to help answer questions on a for mscheduled for mailing in early November to start the nationwide census of Agriculture. Fox Valley County Agents said today.

The Census of Agriculture is taken every five years by the Bureau of the Census, an agency of the U. S. Department of Commerce, in years ending in "4" and "9". It provides information of importance about the nation's agricultural resources and production. Such information is needed in making decisions affecting many segments of the U. S. economy.

Data gathered include the number and size of farms, number of persons living on farms, acreage and harvest of crops, a livestock and poultry inventory, and information on farm equipment and facilities, and on income and some production expenditures.

In the final stage, enumerators will be in three stages, the county agents say. The first stage — organizing a team of local citizens in each county to take the census — is already underway. Crew leaders to supervise the census in each county are being selected and trained.

They will have the responsibility of recruiting and training enough enumerators to count the farms in their counties. Each enumerator will visit about 150 farms during three weeks of temporary employment.

Shortly after Nov. 1, the Census Bureau will open stage two by mailing out census questionnaires to all rural boxholders in the county, the county agent continued. Farm operators will then have time to consult their records, (or best estimates for the year), and answer the questions on the forms.

More Money Available By Good Management

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department's Soil Conservation Service said today up to 85 per cent of the farmers who own woodland could do a much better job of timber management and make more money off saw wood.

Assistance in developing better management programs—including more efficient growth and harvesting of trees—is offered by the service in connection with soil and water conservation programs. Similar service is offered by private foresters and by state forestry departments.

1964-Crop Corn Support Rate Is $1.11 in Outagamie County

The final support rate for 1964 crop provided that support for crop corn in Outagamie County will remain at $1.11 per bushel, less than 65 per cent of parity. Bert Weyenberg, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, has announced

This is the same as the minimum rate set earlier to help growers plan their operations.

Legislation authorizing the feed grain program for the 1964

Weyenberg said during the four years the feed grain program has been in effect, farmers throughout the country have cooperated in reversing a 10-year trend of ever-increasing supplies. On Oct. 1 of this year, the corn carryover was estimated at half a billion bushels below the record carryover of two billion bushels on Oct. 1, 1961.

Ellington Club To Hold Party

What Now for the Test Ban Treaty?

As expected, Red China sneeringly turned down President Johnson's invitation to sign the nuclear test ban treaty. Quite obviously the Peking government is interested in developing its nuclear threat rather than burying it. Will the new member in the nuclear club make a difference in our keeping the treaty?

Three of the other four nations which have developed nuclear bombs are signatories to the treaty. They are the United States, the Soviet Union and Great Britain. France thus far has ignored the treaty as part of its own special De Gaulle brand of go-it-aloneism. In addition, most of the Communist bloc, except Albania, has signed the document as well as a major proportion of the unaligned nations.

It is obvious that the treaty is not a real deterrent to the development of nuclear defenses—or offensive power—in the great majority of the smaller countries. To the contrary, most of them do not want to have anything to do even with harboring a nuclear weapon. They consider possession an invitation to direct attack in case the cold war heats up or if there is an end to peaceful coexistence. This point of view is also dominant in the Labor Party now in control in Great Britain. It is likely that the new Prime Minister, Harold Wilson, will push for an end to England's independent nuclear fleet.

Without the test ban treaty, however, some of the smaller nations which have considerable national and even territorial ambitions of their own, nations like Egypt, Indonesia and even Algeria and Morocco—might have found it expedient to try to afford their own nuclear forces. The treaty has served to slow down any moves in that direction.

But the major result of course has been to halt extensive testing and therefore the development of new nuclear weapons by the United States and as far as we know by the Soviet Union. Only the experts are qualified to determine whether the Russians or the Americans have been more handicapped by the restriction or whether the handicap is important to two nations which already apparently have the power to destroy each other. The entrance of Red China, however, makes a vast difference, at least in the future. If Red China continues testing and developing on a major scale, both the United States and the Soviet Union may have to take another look at the treaty.

The treaty is not eternally binding even if such a thing were a practical possibility. Obviously any treaty can be scrapped as the Russians have demonstrated time and time again. But the nuclear test ban treaty specifically has honorable ways out. Any signatory may withdraw after three months notice if it determines that its national interests are endangered by "extraordinary events." It may withdraw without any notice if another signatory violates the treaty. Nothing in the treaty prohibits the use of nuclear weapons in case of war.

The hard fact that United States authorities must face is that it is in our interests as well as the rest of mankind somehow to slow down Red China's further development of its nuclear know-how. Such lures as United Nations membership or United States recognition cannot be discussed until after the presidential election. But the bitter alternative to such efforts to draw Red China into civilized discussion is to use the threat of nuclear preventive war. The Russians might consider it. It is immoral as far as the United States is concerned.

At present one United States expert estimates that Red China can make operative about one atomic bomb per month and will be able to put hydrogen bombs into production within two years. Other analysts think it will take longer. But there is no doubt but that such ability is coming in Red China and the United States should be considering all avenues of keeping those bombs ever from being used.

Would Like to See Halloween 'Loot' Go Instead to Charity

Editor, Post-Crescent:

I really was interested in the letter in the Sunday Post-Crescent, "Mothers Beg for Infants." I have been wondering why someone hasn't written on this before now. I have thought about it for some time.

I am a 68-year-old grandmother, have several grandchildren under 15 years. I think this idea has gone much too far and if a vote was taken, it would be voted out.

I am a widow and live with my daughter and family, two little girls ages six and four. They did go around to the neighbors the last two years, but they are not going this year. We do have about 160 candy suckers to hand out. Last year it was candy bars, about $3 worth. The kids come from far and near. Parents come with their cars and the kids pile out. And we ones that can't even talk.

Now my point is this. If we were to go around asking for money to send out to the poor, hungry, little children that are cold and hungry, I'm afraid we wouldn't collect much money, but folks will pay out plenty at the store to buy all this loot. That's what a lot of mothers call it, when the children come home with their trick or treat bags full, most of which will be disposed of by the way of garbage.

Most of these little "darlings," and some are too big to be going out, they all have all the candy they need at home. They have free shows to go to and other entertainment such as T.V., radio, swimming pools and so many other things of amusement. This night they can do without. Then there is always a certain bunch that will be ready to take the loot away from the smaller ones that cannot defend themselves.

There will be thousands of dollars spent. Of course there must be masks and gowns. The stores will make a fortune and possibly some child will be injured or killed. And even if the porch light isn't on, the kids will be there anyhow no matter if there is old folks or sick folks. I think it is teaching the children to be beggars. No wonder there is vandalism. I have been thinking how much nicer it would be if parents would explain to their youngsters, kids are so smart these days. They know everything else, some as young as three years old. And explain how nice it would be if all this money that goes for candy which they do not need, could be taken to their own church, then let the church divide it, send part to such organizations that care for the needy outside of U.S.A. and give half to our own charitable organizations (local), to use as they see fit. If we all would look around in our own neighborhood we would find children who do not have the things they need and orphans in our own state.

Believes Meter Maids Won Ticketing Derby

Editor, Post-Crescent:

The date was Oct. 23. Friday night, location downtown College Ave., northside, 509 block west. The weather was clear, the shoppers' running track was fast. The highly trained and closely coordinated meter maids were timing themselves as closely as starters in the Kentucky Derby. The reason must have been to set a record for ticketing cars. Fifty per cent must be the coveted goal. To achieve this goal, a high degree of teamwork was required, since every operation had to be timed to a split-second precision — and it was! Everything was in perfect order, but the poor girls missed their coveted goal by less than a Grand Prix. They forgot the odds! By 8:30 they had only 9 tickets on 19 cars. These are the "ifs" in the odds. If there were 20 cars instead of 19, or if all the 24 stalls in the block were occupied, then the odds would have been even! Just think 10 out of 20 would be the grand prize! But there are other "ifs" for this sort of a horse race and if our city council, police department, and retail merchants don't start using a little horse sense, forgetting that parking is not the only "Big Business" on College Ave., and start thinking about the consumer, College Ave. may become nothing but a big "IF."

How Much Freedom Can Any Individual Expect?

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Speaking as an individual, I, too, like liberty. If I find myself alone on an island following an atomic attack, or otherwise, I will expect to have complete liberty. Should my family be with me, I would expect to have it somewhat curtailed. I cannot imagine living in a society of 180,000,000 plus people with absolute liberty. I don't think I would like living in a family of completely free individuals. What has happened to the spirit of cooperation that won a revolution, a Civil War and conquered a frontier? May I quote John Donne, the English poet who lived from 1572-1631? "No man is an island entire of himself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main; if a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, . . . any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind; and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee."

Wisconsin Report

Politics Obscure Move To Transfer Control Of Engineering Dept.

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
MADISON — Because of its timing during the last stage of a difficult and doubtful campaign for control of the governorship, the report of Sen. J. Leonard the other day about improvements achieved and planned for the State Building Commission was publicized in terms of the immediate politics involved.

Wyngaard

The proposal to remove the State Bureau of Engineering with its key men from the Department of Administration, which has been under the direct control of the governor, and to put it under the jurisdiction of the Building Commission which is ruled by a majority of legislators, had obvious political connotations.

It appeared to be a strike by the Republican-led legislature against the Democratic executive department, which it might have been.

But Leonard had some other matters to report that are considerably more important in the long range and which were quite obscured by the apparent political angles. Among them was the first disclosure, as far as most state-house reporters know, of a new system of interim financing by the state building corporations which he asserts will save some interest expenditures for the state in its huge and growing bonding program.

HOW IT GOES

There is now a program of bond anticipation notes in effect, through a working understanding with several large banks, which enables the commission to handle its long term bond issues more economically.

Through the use of such short term notes, the long term bonds can be marketed according to the most advantageous conditions in the money market.

Another highly significant element of the report was the disclosure that the principal financial institutions now regard the "dummy" corporation bonds, as they have come to be known, as legitimate and sound and the equivalent of "full faith and credit" debentures, in spite of their illegitimate ancestry deriving from the circumvention of the liberal state constitutional prohibition against a long term state debt.

The Leonard report said the U. S. Comptroller of the Currency has advised banks that the various issues of dummy corporation bonds are to be regarded as "public securities," and thus can be eligible for dealing in underwriting and unlimited holding by national banks.

"What this does is open a new horizon for the state and, in effect, give public recognition to the full faith and credit of the people of Wisconsin. Market experience has conclusively shown that similar rulings for other authorities have resulted in dramatic savings on interest rates," Sen. Leonard wrote.

MEANING

What all this apparently means is that doubts about the feasibility of the dummy corporation subterfuge in state bonding are being mitigated. Sen. Leonard is likely to be a principal figure in these affairs for some time to come. Quite obviously he is content with the present system and does not intend to push for a constitutional amendment to permit the issuance of state bonds directly.

Whether the transfer of the identity of the State Engineering Department's functions in connection with the institutional construction program is sound in an administrative sense, meanwhile, will be difficult for the laity to judge.

Manifestly it shows that there remains considerable doubt about the results of the housekeeping consolidation achieved in the Department of Administration by a Democratic administration several years earlier, as another effort last year to re-establish an independent bureau of personnel showed a deep doubt also.

As a guess, however, the idea shows the difficulties of running a state administration when political power is bitterly and suspiciously divided. If the legislature and the executive department were under the control of a single party, such propositions probably would not be offered.

Strictly Personal

Power Principle in World Affairs Invalid

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Freud wrote an important book many years ago, called "Beyond the Pleasure Principle." What our present generation needs is a book by as bold and perceptive a social scientist, called "Beyond the Power Principle."

Harris

What our age has yet failed to grasp — except for a few lonely and unheard voices — is the overwhelming fact that the principle of "ultimate power," by which the human race has been directed since its origins, has suddenly vanished, leaving only a void in its place.

Since the Trojan War, and before, the power principle has been the final and most decisive factor in the behavior of rulers and nations. It guided all kings, statesmen, generals, and dictators, from the Hittites to Hiroshima. Then, in a flash of atomic fission, it disappeared—but hardly anyone seems to know it yet.

This is the most important truth of the 20 century. We are living in a new time — new in a qualitative sense. The conditions under which we survive (if we do) are unique, in the purest sense of the word: for the power principle has evaporated into the atmosphere.

In their more sober moments, when they are not brandishing the latest weapons of overkill, all national leaders recognize this and admit it. War today, they confess, amounts to global suicide.

What does this admission mean, in practical terms? It implies the striking paradox that power has become so great that it cancels itself out. We have finally achieved the reduction ad absurdum of force: to go beyond threats and take the ultimate step to war is self-defeating, for we now possess so much power that it can never be used sanely.

And this changes the whole traditional pattern of Macht-politik. When opposing forces each have the power to blow up, not merely the enemy, but the whole world as well, then both are virtually impotent, and both are the slaves of their mutual doomsday machines.

In the past, it was always the implicit threat of waging war against the enemy — a war in which there would be losers and winners — that weighted down the velvet glove of diplomacy. Whatever talk of justice and law and liberty was spouted at the conference tables, all knew that, at bottom, force was the determining factor.

Now we can still talk, but we can no longer act, beyond a point. Our massive power has curtailed our freedom, rather than expanded it. And, as more and more nations acquire the capacity to make the bomb, our differences in size and population and wealth shrink to insignificance.

Some other principle must supersede the power principle, if we are to have a future. This is the great question to which we should be addressing ourselves. Sooner than we think, it may be too late to ask it.

The Closing of the Crossings

The closing of seven railroad street crossings in the City of Appleton by the Chicago & North Western Railway should not have taken our elected city officials by surprise.

A review of the chain of events leading to the barricading of the streets this week is a poor testimonial to the ability of this city to cope with legal problems and entanglements that are not alien to municipal government operation.

The railroad originally petitioned the Public Service Commission to close 12 crossings and the PSC approved seven, all over the objection of the city. The Common Council then directed the city attorney to request a rehearing from the commission which the latter denied in a letter of notification to the city dated Oct. 6.

On Oct. 7 the Board of Public Works adopted a resolution authorizing the city attorney to file a petition in Dane County Circuit Court at Madison to seek a legal review of the commission's ruling. But at that point city officials apparently decided to let nature take its course until suddenly one fine morning this week there appeared on the scene crews of the Chicago & North Western who proceeded to decrease the number of Appleton's through streets.

No one—not even the city's two legal assistants—thought of obtaining an injunction or restraining order against the railroad the day after the request for a rehearing was denied by the PSC.

New Vistas for Vocational Schools

One of the significant developments in the exploding post high school educational program in Wisconsin has been the abrupt and substantial growth in numbers of degree students in the schools of vocational and adult education.

The state supervising office recently produced a survey report showing 1964 enrollments of two year degree candidates in the local schools approaching 11,000. More significantly, the demand for such service especially in the larger communities has been such that facilities have not been expanded sufficiently to keep pace and some thousands of candidates for such training were turned away this fall.

The State Department of Vocational and Adult Education has adjusted its new legislative budget requests to this turn of affairs. It will ask for a greater ratio of state tax support for the local programs, reasoning, first, that many of these students now aided by local tax budgets would be state-supported if they enrolled at the state universities and the University of Wisconsin, and, second, that most of them in the typical school are non-residents of the municipality in which they are being served.

Some progress has already been made in altering the identity of the local schools and to give them status as elements of a state-wide system of higher education.

The 1963 legislature gave the schools representation on the Coordinating Committee for Higher Education, charged with long-range planning and policy development for the whole gamut of state-supported higher education service. That agency, it is pertinent to note here, has published a series of enlightened and sympathetic studies of the operations of the local schools and their relationship to the burgeoning post high school programs as a whole.

The historic function of the schools in serving as sources of trade-related instruction for apprentices in industry and trade, in part-time adult education, for the high school dropout and others will continue as during the first half century of the life of these institutions. But there is now emerging a new role, as shown by the hugely increased enrollment in organized and formal general education beyond the high school. Obviously that growth will bring problems of finance, and it is well that the program is now integrated in planning and budgeting at the state level with the other and better known institutions of the higher education system.

Looking Backward

Meeting Called 'Shoddy Carnival'

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for Oct. 29, 1864.

Notwithstanding the good roads, mild weather, and wide spread effort to draw a crowd, scarce a half dozen more voters attended the great Hubbel-Doolittle shoddy, carnival on Tuesday afternoon and evening than were present at the evening gathering got up on short notice to hear Gen. Linder.

True, the University students had a half holiday, and the concourse of women and children was quite numerous. One of them (the speaker) proved to his own satisfaction that slavery was the cause of the war; the other was equally happy in proving that it wasn't! Both conclusions elicited equal applause.

Ex-Judge Hubbel, of Impenetrable memory, made a maliciously mean, false and cowardly reflection by innuendo upon the courage of Col. Gabriel Bouck. It is fitting that such a charge should be made for the first time by one who was voted an unjust judge by so many Republican senators in the High Court of Impeachment.

But there is a personal reason for this cowardly manifestation of spleen which should be more generally known than it is. Gabriel Bouck, for fitness and bravery in battle, was promoted from a Captain to the Colonelcy of the 18th Wisconsin Infantry over the head of Judge Hubbel's son-in-law, Lieutenant Colonel of that regiment, notwithstanding the strenuous efforts of that Judge of sullied fame to bring about a different result!

Rilla Swamp became the shuffleboard champion at Appleton High School when she defeated runner-up Mildred Dingeldein in the title tournament held by the Girls Athletic Association.

Miss Shirley Turton, Appleton student at Mount Mary College, was named a committee chairman for the freshman Halloween costume party at the college.

Robert Maves was installed as president of the Luther League at First English Lutheran Church by the Rev. F. C. Reuter. Other officers installed were Kenneth Sieth, vice president; Miss Arlene Ballard, secretary; Miss Ruth Gust, treasurer, and Miss Eunice Rehfeldt, financial secretary.

Ray Brash, senior back with the Terrers, was named captain of the Appleton High School homecoming game

Newly elected members of the Terrers' Den of Appleton YMCA were Karen Eisch, Millie Bubolz, Margie Schmiede, Sandy Jentz, Jerry Lecy, Vicki Spooner, Kathie Anderson, Mike Wenzel, Jack Close, Carl Schwendler, Jerry Johnson and Bob Helien.

In charge of the harvest dinner and bazaar of the Deborah Rebekah Lodge were Mrs. Edward Olson, noble grand and chairman, Mrs. John Greiner, Mrs. D. L. Chady, Mrs. David Clark and Mrs. Robert Boettcher.

Mrs. C. H. McManis, Mrs. Edward Krueger, Miss Sandra Hale and Mrs. R. B. Ramsay were readers for the World Community Day service to be held the next week at Memorial Presbyterian Church by the Appleton United Church Women. Mrs. Carl Bertram and Mrs. Roy Anderson were to present the music for the annual service.

Farm-City Week

Recently appointed Dean of the University of Wisconsin College of Agriculture, Glenn Pound, will deliver the principal address at the 1964 Farm-City Week kickoff dinner at the Park Motor Inn in Madison, Nov. 19.

Brillion Organization

Glen Hacker to Head Ag Advisory Council

BRILLION — Glen Hacker, is with the activity on the student's home farm. Forest Junction, has been elected chairman of the newly organized agricultural advisory council of the Brillion High School vocational - agriculture department.

The recent meeting was called to obtain ideas from the rural and business segments on how the vocational agriculture department can better serve the school district.

Keeping farm boys interested in farming is the department's key role. Discussion of the curriculum showed that the fresh-man year should expose the students to a wide variety of activities.

Desire For Study

A broad knowledge of information inspires a desire for study in greater detail as the student advances through school. Effort should be made to teach the material on a seasonal basis.

Calumet 4-H Leaders Must Take Training

SHERWOOD — Earl Lintner, Chilton, president of the Calumet County 4-H Leaders Council, will speak at the annual Sherwood Wide - Awake 4 - H Club's Parent Night program at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Harrison School. His topic will be "Satisfaction of 4-H Club Leadership."

Miss Jane Goedli, New Horstein, Calumet County's representative in the State 4-H Chorus, will act as song leader. Fair checks will be distributed.

Paula Thiel and Mary Beth Brantmeier, junior leaders, are co-chairmen, assisted by Peggy Ott, Susan Michiels, Virginia Gillis, Sharon Thiel and Susanne Thiel.

Nightingale 4-H Club Elects New Officers

They are Dennis Bowers, president; Joyce Van Zeeland, vice president; Bonnie Van Rossum, secretary; Judy Huss, treasurer; Merlin Van Rooy, reporter and Mary Weyers, corresponding secretary.

Committees for the year include refreshments, Mary Weyers, chairman, Judy Huss and Dot Weiland; decorations, Merlin Van Rooy, chairman; Dennis Bowers, Bonnie Van Rossum, Juliane Bowers and Joyce Van Zeeland, and entertainment, Dennis Bowers, chairman.

Next meeting will be Achievement Night, Nov. 17 at the Sunny Corners School.

Hot Line Was Idle During Red Change

Communication Channel Held For Use in Emergencies Only

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington-Moscow "hot line" between the White House and the Kremlin, U.S. officials said today, has stood idle while President Johnson exchanged messages with the new leaders of the Soviet Union.

This may come as a surprise to many people who, judging by inquiries about the hot line operation, apparently have the impression that it is a regular channel of communications between the White House and the Kremlin.

U.S. officials said today, however, that in fact the line has never been used for substantial exchanges of views between the American and Soviet governments. The reason is that when it was opened Aug. 31, 1963, both governments had already reached agreement that it would be employed only in times of crisis.

Avoid War

The theory behind creation of the special communications channel is that in a moment of extreme danger the ability of the President of the United States and the leaders of the Soviet Union to send messages to each other directly and in secret might help to avoid actions which would plunge the world into nuclear war.

The agreement to establish a line was reached following the Cuban missile crisis of October 1962. During the exchanges between the late President John F. Kennedy and former Premier Khrushchev some messages were given out publicly as soon as they were dispatched to one capital or the other because news wires could transmit them so much more quickly than they could be handled through ordinary diplomatic channels.

Tested Daily

The hot line, which is tested every day, is actually two telegraph circuits which can readily handle messages in both directions. There is also a duplex radio circuit which would be used as a fallback channel in case the land line between the Pentagon and Moscow should break down at a critical moment.

Theoretically if the hot line had to be used in the near future, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin would be the man at the other

Real Powers

However, the real power in Moscow is traditionally in the hands of the first secretary of the Communist party, a position taken over two weeks ago by Leonid I. Brezhnev upon Khrushchev's removal.

For this reason officials here have sometimes asked in recent days: "Who would be at the other end of the hot line?"

The problem posed by this question may not be as acute as the question suggests, however, because some of the best informed authorities here believe that in a time of great crisis all the 10 or so top men in the Soviet Union would be on hand at the other end of the line.

THE POWER WOMEN HAVE OVER MEN

Is it simply the power to say "NO"—as one man claims? Is giving praise the secret of women's power? Or is it solely a matter of sex?

Green Bay Man Stabbed; Woman Being Questioned

A former Green Bay alderman was hospitalized with knife wounds Thursday afternoon and police, late this morning, began questioning a 49-year-old woman named as the man's assailant.

Donald Becker, 54, 220 S. Webster Ave., was reported in fair condition at Bellin Hospital this morning. Police said he was stabbed once in the groin area.

Becker, questioned by city detectives at the hospital following the attack, named the east side woman as his assailant. The woman was held overnight in the county jail and transferred to the police station for questioning this morning.

In his statement Thursday, Becker said he returned to his apartment with the woman shortly after 2 p.m. He said they had been drinking.

After being struck with the knife, Becker ran out of the house and sought assistance from a neighbor. An ambulance was called and Becker was taken to the hospital.

State Audit Becomes Issue in Campaign

Knowles Says Reynolds Created Controversy When He Denied Charge of Misuse of Funds

GREEN BAY — Warren Knowles, Republican candidate for governor, said Thursday it was the content and timing of the defense of Democrats which has turned a state audit charging misuse of $3.2 million by the department of administration into a partisan issue.

Gov. John Reynolds said the charges are "reckless and false" and accused Knowles of "a desperate last ditch effort to salvage remnants of a shabby inept campaign."

In the latest developments as the campaign for governor headed down the home-stretch, Knowles called a news conference in Green Bay today and Reynolds delivered an item by item denial of the state audit at a news conference in Milwaukee late Wednesday.

Reynolds also denounced J. J. Keliher, state auditor, a Republican appointee.

Knowles' Reply

"I also sought to replace Mr. Keliher with an honest and competent man who would respect the non-political nature of his office. No member of my staff has committed an illegal act, an immoral act, or an improper act. I am proud of my staff."

Reynolds said.

In reply today, Knowles said

Milwaukeean Dies in Crash

Theodore K. Schmidt Killed After Tire Blows, Tree Struck

OSHKOSH — Theodore K. Schmidt, 61, Milwaukee, was pronounced dead on arrival at Mercy Hospital at 5:05 p.m. Thursday as a result of injuries received in a one-car auto accident on State 21 in the Town of Omro.

Schmidt became the 17th traffic fatality in Winnebago County this year.

Schmidt, returning from northern Wisconsin where he had locked up his cottage for the winter, died of a skull fracture and internal injuries, according to Coroner Arthur Miller.

His 1962 station wagon was heading east on State 21 near the Sand Pit Road when witnesses said he left rear tire blew out, causing the car to skid sideways, leave the road and strike a tree.

His car was total wreck.

The deaths of two other men in separate crashes have raised the 1964 Wisconsin highway toll to 383, compared with 743 on this date last year.

Fred Schroeder, 57, of Kekoskee was killed Thursday night in the collision of his dump truck and an auto on Dodge County Trunk Y outside of Kekoskee.

Walter Austinson, 53, of Clear Lake died Wednesday as his tractor overturned on him after leaving a town road about a half mile north of Clear Lake in Polk County.

Issue Of Education

Knowles said Reynolds was turning education into a partisan issue and agreed with a charge today of John Conway, Eighth District GOP chairman, that the governor was engaged in "educational auctioneering" in promising locations for new state colleges.

"I have said that it is not proper for the governor to come into Northeastern Wisconsin and get the people excited over a new school and then use the same ruse in the Racine-Kenosha area," he said.

The Coordinating Committee on Higher Education must recommend a site and the legislature must come up with a financing plan for what is "a dollars and cents matter," he said.

Knowles said he knew nothing of the audit being completed until a newspaperman told him of it Monday press conference of Stanley Williams, deputy director of the department of administration, defending the department against questions raised by the audit. Williams got the audit from a Madison book bindery and "it had not been signed nor was it official at that time," said Knowles.

Question Purpose

Knowles repeated he was not accusing anyone of taking state money. But the question raised by the audit is whether $3.2 million provided by the legislature was used for unintended purposes.

Before the audit turned up, said Knowles, he was more concerned with trying to show that "for the first time the state government is being operated for the benefit of a political party rather than the people of the state as a whole."

This is why he said he raised the point of campaign letters to persons receiving state student loans being mailed with a department of taxation postage meter. There is evidence also of chartered planes on political trips being charged to the governor's office by "civil defense and others," he said.

Owen Monfils, a Reynolds appointee, is civil defense director.

Green Bay Man Stabbed; Woman Being Questioned

A former Green Bay alderman was hospitalized with knife wounds Thursday afternoon and police, late this morning, began questioning a 49-year-old woman named as the man's assailant.

Donald Becker, 54, 220 S. Webster Ave., was reported in fair condition at Bellin Hospital this morning. Police said he was stabbed once in the groin area.

Becker, questioned by city detectives at the hospital following the attack, named the east side woman as his assailant. The woman was held overnight in the county jail and transferred to the police station for questioning this morning.

In his statement Thursday, Becker said he returned to his apartment with the woman shortly after 2 p.m. He said they had been drinking.

After being struck with the knife, Becker ran out of the house and sought assistance from a neighbor. An ambulance was called and Becker was taken to the hospital.

Seek Land Strip For Parking Lot

University Asks City For Parcel Near New Lawrence Stadium
Lawrence University has asked the city for a strip of land between the Fox River and John Street for use as a parking area near the new stadium.
The board of public works in- dicated Tuesday it would act favorably after receiving a re- port from City Planner-Engineer Walter Rasmussen.
Public Works Director Robert W. Bues said the city - owned land is left over from the Col- lege Avenue bridge construc- tion. "I see no objection to giv- ing it to the university," Bues said.
It was estimated the strip is 1,000 feet long and 60 to 70 feet wide.
In other action, the board: —Failed to pre-qualify Super-ior Electric Co. as a bidder on city projects until the firm fills out the statement required by the finance director's office.
—Denied the pre-qualification request of R. Wenzel Co. on the recommendation of Bues, who said it has taken the firm 2½ years to finish one city project.
Adopted a resolution directing the city attorney to attempt to get an injunction against the Chicago and North Western rail- road to block it from closing seven crossings in the city.

Educator Talks To Appleton De Molay Unit

"Take a sociological look at the world and see where you fit into the picture," William F. Berner, Appleton High School principal, told the John F. Rose Chapter, Order of De Molay, at the Masonic Temple Tuesday.
"What we learn in school must be placed in a sociological focus as a challenge to discov- er how learning will fit into what I do," he said.
Berner pointed out that tech- nological advances of the past 25 years have changed career and job emphasis. Jobs for which men were trained a gen- eration ago no longer exist. He stressed the importance of con- stant evaluation of job and ca- reer opportunities.
"Schools," he said, "are based on teach, and students to learn factual materials. However," he added, "these facts must be stated in work- able concepts, and related to the society in which we live."
Berner said the environment in which the present teen-ager will live does not exist at this time.

He stressed that it is up to each boy to decide whether he needs to go to college. In ar- riving at this decision a boy should assess who he is, what his desires are and, finally, his capabilities, he said. "Be hon- est with yourself, and be proud of what you do."

"Pat Lucey Means Business—for Wisconsin!" This is not merely a campaign slogan, but a real promise of performance from a successful business man who, as Lieutenant Governor, will work effectively to promote Wisconsin's industrial advantages!

But all this is like an innocent grin compared with some of the things said by and about politi- cians in years gone.
President John Adams was called a semimaniac. Thomas Jefferson an "anti-Christ." Grover Cleveland was accused of fathering an illegitimate child and when he won the presidency Republicans chorused:
"Ma, ma, where's my pa? Gone to the White House, ha, ha, ha."
In the field of cliches Johnson and Goldwater seem no better or worse than presidential candi- dates of the past although they contribute their share. Like these:

By Johnson — "We must keep our eyes on the stars and our feet on the ground." And by Goldwater to the voters — "I think you're reaching the end of your rope" and the basic issue "is whether we shall take the path that leads to Socialism."

THE STORY OF TEN LITTLE FREE WORKERS

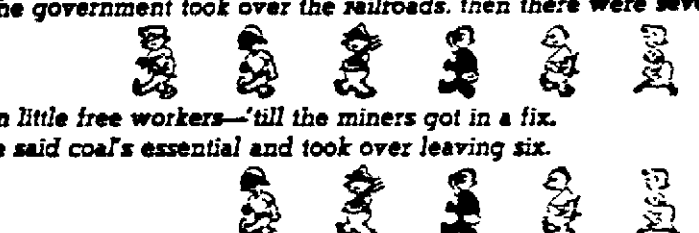

THESE ARE THE WORKERS
REDDY DOCTOR RAILROADER MINER STEELWORKER FARMER LAWYER GROCER SALESCLERK REPORTER

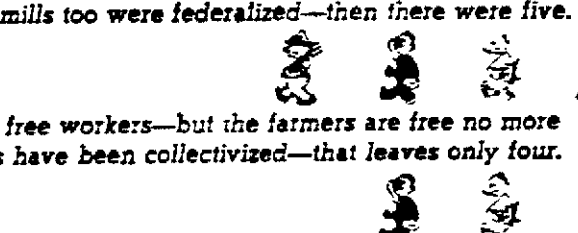

Ten little free workers in this country fine and fair.
But if you cherish your freedom—worker have a care!
Ten little free workers—Reddy was doing fine
Until the socialists got him—then there were nine.

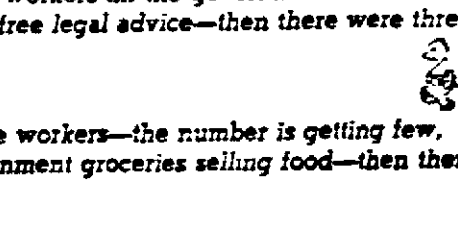

Nine little free workers laughed at Reddy's fate
Along came federal medicine—then there were eight.

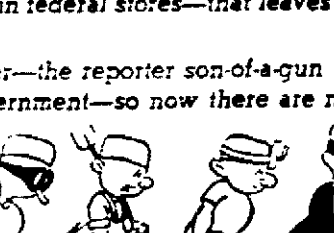

Eight little free workers thought this country heaven
But the government took over the railroads, then there were seven.

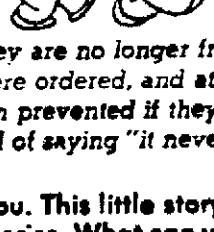

Seven little free workers—till the miners got in a fix.
Uncle said coal's essential and took over leaving six.

Six little free workers 'till the day did arrive
The steel mills too were federalized—then there were five.

Five little free workers—but the farmers are free no more
The farms have been collectivized—that leaves only four.

Four little free workers till the government did decree
All must have free legal advice—then there were three.

Three little free workers—the number is getting few,
But with government groceries selling food—then there were two.

Two little free workers—our story's almost done,
With clerks at work in federal stores—that leaves only one.

One little free worker—the reporter son-of-a-gun
Mustn't criticize government—so now there are none.

Ten little workers—but they are no longer free
They work when and where ordered, and at a fixed rate you see,
And it all could have been prevented if they'd only seen fit to agree
And work together instead of saying "it never can happen to me!"

WAS Robert A. TAFT the 4th WORST SENATOR IN WASHINGTON?

That's how the 1951 Pag- eant Poll ranked him! This same poll now gives Sen- ator Bill Proxmire the same rating. (After his death, Bob Taft was voted by the United States Senate as among the five great sen- ators of all time!)

To this date, not one top Washington newsmen can be found whose opinion was asked by this so-called poll.

World Meeting Of Communists Possible Soon

are watching and waiting developments.

The Chinese Communists seem interested now in a meeting with Moscow. They had rejected Khrushchev's call for a preparatory meeting Dec. 15 intended to lead to a world conference of 90 parties in mid-1965, but things have changed.

Seek Tokens

A conference, now likely, would be welcomed by Peking, anxious to probe Soviet intentions and seek tokens from Moscow that it has mended its ways.

Reactions to the Soviet upheaval among Red China's allies — parties like the Albanian, Japanese, Indonesian and others — indicate there is an exorbitant price on world Communist unity.

They seem to want:

A more thorough Soviet house cleaning to oust all "modern revisionists," a term the Red Chinese applied to Khrushchev.

Abrogation of the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, which the U.S.S.R. still seems to value. Instead, the Chinese Communists want an enormous propaganda drive keyed to total destruction of all nuclear weapons. This could be a cloak behind which Red China might build more nuclear weapon effectiveness.

Party Relations

Scuttling of the Soviet party's relationship with Tito of Yugoslavia, whom the Red Chinese still call a "modern revisionist."

Reshaping of Soviet economic aid policy. This would mean more help to China and more help to Communist parties, less help to such countries as India and Egypt.

Unconditional Soviet support of all revolutionary movements, regardless of risk.

Abandonment of the notion that the Soviet party, as the leader and model for all Communist parties, has the right to dictate the course of Communist revolution everywhere.

Peaceful Coexistence

Above all, the Chinese will want a more warlike brand of peaceful coexistence, which would single out the United States as the main enemy of all Communists. This means Khrushchev's theories of war and peace must be denounced. The Chinese will not buy the idea that nuclear weapons outdate the theory that war is inevitable, nor will they buy the Khrushchev idea that nuclear war would annihilate all humanity. They will not buy, either, Khrushchev's notion that Communists can climb to power peacefully.

With the Soviet developments of the past decade, this price looks far too high for Moscow.

scarce or very expensive in the East.

Passes through the wall were good for only one day, until midnight.

"Last year," said a woman in her 60s, "I saw my first grandchild and now I will see the twins that were born in the summer."

"I am going to see grandpa," chirped a 4-year-old girl. "He has a long, long beard."

The East German guards, who usually have only sour looks for the West, were all smiles. But they were backed by huge propaganda signs.

"Stop the nuclear armament of West Germany and work with us for a stable peace in Germany," said one.

Visiting Period

The rush through the iron curtain was not as great today as it was on the first day of the Christmas-New Year visiting period.

About 800,000 West Berliners with relatives in East Berlin were eligible to apply for wall passes under an agreement signed last month between West Berlin and East Germany.

This was the second such agreement concluded since the Reds built the wall in August, 1961, to prevent the escape of East Germans. The first agreement ran for 18 days over Christmas and New Year. Immediately after it expired, new talks began and lasted for 10 months.

In addition to the current two-week period, West Berliners can cross through the wall during the Christmas and New Year holidays, during Easter and over the Whitsun holidays.

The East Germans are allowing each eligible West Berliner to visit relatives only once dur-

Pleasant Autumn Weekend in Store As Winter Nears

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

November is just around the corner, but another weekend of generally pleasant autumn weather was in prospect for Wisconsin today.

A warming trend was expected to continue through Saturday.

Temperatures fell below freezing in many parts of Wisconsin early today and skies cleared. Lone Rock hit a low of 23. That tied with Oscoda and Alpena.

Menominee, as the lowest in the nation, Superior had 25. Milwaukee and Eau Claire 26, Madison and Beloit 27, Racine 28, Wausau 29, Green Bay 32 and La Crosse 35.

La Crosse set the high of 54 Thursday, with other tops ranging down to Park Falls 43.

Some heavy fog developed in the Superior region today, but the weather was clear in most of the state.

Hottest place in the nation Thursday was Bend, Ariz., with 92.

But to cut down on waiting time, applications were being accepted for both periods. The official East German news agency, ADN, said Thursday night that 984,000 passes had been issued so far.

Wisconsin Student Jailed in E. Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—An American student from Milton Junction, Wis., was arrested by Communist police in East Berlin three weeks ago. U.S. authorities said today.

The student was identified as John Van Altena, 20, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Altena, live at Milton Junction.

U.S. authorities said Van Altena was arrested in East Berlin on Oct. 10 but the reason for the arrest was not known.

U.S. officials said Van Altena had been living in Hamburg, West Germany, before coming to Berlin.

students, barricaded in the 14-story university building, surrendered to government forces that included army troops, police, and the militia of Paz Estenssoro.

The fight at the university was preceded by student rioting in which the building of the Health Ministry was sacked and set afire. The students, along with antigovernment labor union groups, also attacked the government's paper La Nacion.

Surrender Offered

Surrender of the students and union groups in the university was offered on condition that the rebels not be punished. Ciro Humboldt, interior minister, said this condition would be respected.

Sporadic firing was heard throughout the night as strong forces of troops, police and militiamen patrolled the streets.

A government communique said union miners "perfectly armed with new weapons made in Czechoslovakia" took part in the Oruro fighting. It said antigovernment demonstrators in La Paz also had Czech weapons.

The government charged that Czechoslovakia's Embassy was linked with Bolivian Communists who the government charged instigated the uprising and riots.

Foreign Minister Fernando Iturralde ordered the Czechoslovak ambassador to leave the country.

In La Paz, Msgr. Andres Kennedy of St. Louis, Mo., Roman Catholic vicar general of the capital, had negotiated a truce between the government and opposing forces Thursday, but demonstrators from the rival factions collided during the night and street fighting broke out.

Paz Estenssoro has faced growing discontent since he had the constitution changed in 1961.

Man, Woman Share Award of Forest Industries

WASHINGTON (AP)—For the first time in its history, a woman shared today in the top of the award of the American Forest Products Industries, Inc.

The award, for distinguished service to forestry and the forest industry, was presented to Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold of Saugerties, N. Y., former president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and W. R. Beaumier, vice president and general manager of the Lufkin, Tex., News.

Each received a bronze plaque, a citation and a check for $500 at a luncheon meeting of the organization's annual convention. The group is a nationwide association of wood-using industries, and sponsors the Arvic president who was kicked off the ticket before the election.

Our candidate for an ideal election night party menu is this appetizing combination of meatballs in barbecue sauce served on small homemade buns. Give the foods a special twist on the political theme to keep the evening light and fun.

The Party's Choice

All Vote Getters

- ☒ Dunk-ey Meat Balls
- ☒ El-e-phant Sauce
- ☒ Split-Ticket Tuna
- ☒ Party Favorite Heroes
- ☒ Election Casserole
- ☒ Non-Partisan Doughnuts

Here's a tuna ticket designed to promote bi-partisan harmony. The Split-Ticket Tuna Sandwiches, left, are a half-and-half combination, one half with tuna-parsley mixture and the other a tuna-mustard mixture. The Party Favorites, right are hero sandwiches in delicious variation.

Food for Political Thought Election Night

Assorted cheeses, sliced cold meats, a variety of breads and a tangy cranberry relish salad make attractive fare for a buffet supper table set against a background of campaign posters. The posters here are reprints of old campaigns, but up-to-date ones will serve just as well. A red and white striped tablecloth (or a striped sheet), plus bright blue napkins carries out the patriotic theme.

BY LILLIAN MACKESY
Post-Crescent Food Editor

It certainly is no secret that there's to be a big election next week. Since everybody and his brother (and sister) are going to be waiting for the returns, why not jump on the political bandwagon and make a party of it?

Election night is a perfect time for inviting a few friendly vote counters over for the evening. The easiest way to serve foods is to prepare a buffet that either centers on a late food fest or is made for nibbling throughout the evening.

One thing that's certain, the hostess should look for foods unusual in taste but they should be easy - to - prepare ones and those easy to keep hot or cold as the case may be to fit into an informal get-together. Make-aheads are excellent choices, as are prepared or semi-prepared foods. Sandwiches always rate high for long evening snacking.

Varieties of bread, served neatly sliced on a platter and protected by a pretty linen or towel cover, go well with special spreads, slices of prepared meats and sausages or canned ham sliced and ready for sandwich making. A bowl of crisp, moist lettuce, mustard, seasoning, pickles, onion slices and other sandwich makings can be near by.

recipes anyway because they really are fine foods for an informal buffet even under more prosaic names.

DUNK-EY MEAT BALLS

1 pound ground beef, lean
1/2 cup cornflake crumbs
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1/4 cup finely cut onion
1/4 cup catsup or chili sauce
1 tablespoon Worcestershire Sauce
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Mix all ingredients well in two-quart bowl. With wet hands shape meat mixture into 36 small balls. Use about one teaspoon meat for each meat ball. Place in baking pan. Bake in 400-degree oven 12 to 15 minutes or until meat balls are brown. Place in barbecue sauce and serve with buns.

EL-E-GHANT SAUCE

1/2 cup catsup
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 tablespoons finely cut onion
2 tablespoons pickle relish, drained
2 tablespoons water
2 tablespoons Worcestershire Sauce
1 tablespoon vinegar
Few grains pepper
Mix all ingredients in two-quart saucepan. Heat until steaming. Serve hot.

BALLOT BOX BUNS

1/2 cup very warm water
1/2 cup evaporated milk
2 1/2 cups biscuit mix
Dissolve yeast in very warm water in two-quart bowl. Stir in evaporated milk and biscuit mix. Beat well. Turn out on board lightly dusted with biscuit mix. Knead dough about 20 times. Pinch off enough dough to form about 36 one-inch balls. Place in greased nine-inch round baking pan. Let rise in warm place, away from drafts, for about one hour or until doubled in bulk. Bake in preheated, 400-degree oven about 15 minutes, or until golden brown.

SPLIT - TICKET TUNA SANDWICHES

2 cans tuna in vegetable oil (6 1/2 or 7-ounce cans)
1/2 cup chopped celery
3 tablespoons lemon juice
3 ounces cream cheese
1 teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup chopped parsley

1 tablespoon prepared mustard
6 slices white bread or buns
6 slices whole wheat bread or buns
Combine tuna and celery. Gradually blend lemon juice into cream cheese, add Worcestershire sauce and salt. Mix lightly with tuna - celery mixture; divide in half. Mix chopped parsley with one-half; mustard with the other. Spread half of one side of white bread slices with parsley mixture. Top with spoon half the tuna mixture on whole wheat bread slices. Cut sandwiches so each half has part of each mixture.

PARTY FAVORITE HEROES

1/2 cup chopped celery
1/4 cup mayonnaise
1/4 cup chili sauce
2 small hero rolls
Lettuce leaves
4 slices American cheese
Combine tuna, celery, mayonnaise and chili sauce. Halve hero rolls lengthwise. Place lettuce leaf on bottom halves. Top with spoon half the tuna mixture on whole wheat bread slices. Cut

- ELECTION NIGHT CASSEROLE
- 8 slices bacon
 - 1 cup finely diced celery
 - 1 cup water
 - 6 ounces canned tomato paste
 - 1/2 cup brown sugar
 - 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
 - 1 envelope spaghetti Sauce Mix
 - 2 tablespoons cider vinegar
 - 1 teaspoon garlic salt

- 1 can pork and beans in tomato sauce (1 lb., 12 ounces)
 - 2 cans green limas or butter limas, drained (1-pound cans)
 - 1 can red kidney beans, well drained (1-pound can)
- Cook six slices of bacon until crisp. Reserve along with two uncooked slices. Sauté the onion and celery in two tablespoons of the bacon fat about five minutes. Add the water, tomato paste, brown sugar, mustard, spaghetti sauce mix, vinegar and garlic salt. Blend together and bring to a boil. Meanwhile, combine in a three-quart

- casserole pork and beans, limas, and kidney beans. Add the crumbled, cooked bacon and the onion and spaghetti sauce. Stir to distribute sauce. Cut the reserved uncooked slices of bacon into two-inch pieces and dot the top of the casserole. Bake, uncovered, in a 350-degree oven one hour or until bubbly hot. Add 20 minutes extra baking time if casserole has been refrigerated. Recipe makes 10 servings.
- NON-PARTISAN DOUGHNUTS
- 1/2 cup instant mashed potato granules
 - 1/2 cup water
 - 1/2 cup milk
 - 1/2 cup shortening
 - 1 cup sugar
 - 2 eggs
 - 1/2 cup milk
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
 - 3/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
 - 4 teaspoons baking powder

- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon mace fat for frying

Prepare mashed potatoes according to package directions, using three-fourths cup water and quarter cup milk. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs, quarter cup milk, and vanilla. Add mashed potato. Mix thoroughly.

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and mace; add to potato mixture. Roll out about half-inch thick on lightly-floured board. Cut with doughnut cutter. Heat deep fat to 375 degrees. Fry doughnuts in fat until golden brown, turning once. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes about two dozen doughnuts.

Sheinwold Learn to Face Facts At Bridge

It must have been a bridge player who stared incredulously fact in the eye caused South's downfall in today's hand.

West took two top spades and led a third spade to make South ruff. Declarer led a trump to dummy's ten and returned the queen of diamonds, losing to the king.

West got out safely with a discarded one club in the jack of diamonds. He still had to give up a club. Down one.

The rhinoceros in the ointment was the king of diamonds. All the evidence made it clear that the king was nestling securely in West's hand.

To begin with, West needed the king of diamonds for his vulnerable opening bid. For another, East would have spoken at his first or second turn if he had the king of diamonds in addition to his Q-X-X of spades. It was flying in the face of the facts to assume that West had made a semi-psychic opening bid and that East had passed a hand that was worth a response.

Should Make Contract

South should make the contract by facing the fact that West has the king of diamonds. After ruffing the third spade, South simply leads his low diamond.

If West takes his king, South can later clear the ace of diamonds out of the way and draw three rounds of trumps ending in the dummy. Then he discards both low clubs on the queen and jack of diamonds.

If West fails to take the king of diamonds, South gets no discards but doesn't lose a diamond trick. He can take the top clubs, give up a club, and ruff his last club in dummy. Either way the contract is home.
